Ten per cent drop in crime

But Dorset Police face £17million spending cut over next four years

By Tom Glover

A SERIOUS drop in violent assaults and criminal damage in Bridport has helped Dorset crime fall to a 12 year low.

Total crime in the Bridport section, which also covers Beaminster and Lyme Regis, dropped by more than 10 per cent last year, with violent crime and criminal damage figures dropping by around a quarter.

In total 1,711 crimes were reported in 2010, 198 less than in the previous year.

There was also a significant drop in anti-social behaviour figures with 171 less cases in 2010, a drop of almost seven per cent on the previous year.

Bridport Section Commander, Inspector Caroline Naughton, said: "I am pleased that crime reduced in Bridport last year compared to 2009.

"However, it is important that we do not become complacent and that we continue to work hard to make Bridport even safer.

"There were almost 200 fewer reported offences last year, with significant reductions in violent crime, criminal damage and anti-social behaviour.

"We will continue to work with the public to ensure that they follow our crime prevention advice which will help reduce the chances of them becoming victims of crime."

The marked drop in crime was echoed across the county where crime figures reached a 12-year low, with sexual offences and vehicle crime reaching its lowest level for 15 years.

Chief Constable Martin Baker said: "I am pleased that crime continued to fall across Dorset last year but we are never complacent.

"The reduction in total crime has resulted in over 3,500 fewer victims in Dorset in 2010 compared to 2009.

"Our staff and officers work hard with partners and the community to continue to make Dorset safer, and it is by working together that we have been able to reduce crime.

"Incidents of anti-social behaviour also dropped last year, with almost 5,500 fewer incidents being reported to the force. This reflects the success of our Safer Neighbourhood Teams and the joint work they have undertaken with local organisations and communities to tackle anti-social behaviour in Dorset."

This drop in crime saw 3,617 fewer offences recorded by the force last year compared to 2009 – a reduction of 7.3 per cent.

Despite some impressive figures the force still have some issues to tackle with the number of drug offences across the county rising by 180 – an increase of 11.3 per cent, and robbery rising by 6.7 per cent.

However, police believe the most significant

PAULA English runs Nellie May's Wholefood Grocers in Beaminster with her partner Neil Judd.

Former German and French teacher, Paula opened the shop last February and has been on a steep learning curve as she gets to grips with running her first business.

Paula moved to Dorset in 2000 and has lived in Bridport and Broadwindsor before moving to Beaminster. In her career as a teacher she worked short-term contracts at both Budmouth Technology College in Weymouth and Woodroffe Secondary School in Lyme Regis, she also worked a s a supply teacher for Colfox School in Bridport.

Paula's three children, Morgan, 17, Conal, 14 and Ronan eight all attend school in Beaminster.

Paula loves to travel and has spent time living in Malaysia, West Africa, Portugal and Germany.

WHAT made you make the break from teaching?
I decided I'd rather do something different and always talked about running a food shop. This is the first time I've run a shop and it's a steep learning curve. We've always talked about how it would be great to have a shop selling all this stuff we have always bought. In fact we are selling a lot of stuff that we didn't really know about before having the shop so it's been really interesting.

WHAT is the ethos of your shop?
The focus is on wholefoods and as many local products as possible. We believe in supporting local communities and food should ideally come from as close as possible. We have got a lot of Dorset, Devon and Cornwall products which we class as fairly local. We also try to provide a service whereby we order things for customers as well, if somebody wants something particular we will order it in for them.

WHAT superfoods would you recommend?
I'd say that everything we've got is good food because it's free from additives and fillers. I don't particularly believe in faddish superfoods really, we sell beetroot juice because it's supposed to be wonderful but I'm not really a superfoods sort of person. I'm more committed to good quality food which hasn't got any junk in it and I think if you follow a varied diet of wholefoods you are going to be a healthy person. We sell lots of treats too like chocolate and alcohol, it's not just the healthy food.

HOW have the community reacted to your arrival?
Initially I think a lot of people were quite cautious and they didn't really know what wholefoods meant. People came gradually and now we have got quite a lot of regular customers who come in and that's been a really good part of the whole experience really. We met some really nice people and it's really nice to talk to people, I think that's a really important part of local community life really and I think people like to share stories and chat.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

ARE you glad you stopped teaching?
Yeah, teaching is really enjoyable but some aspects of the job aren't quite so enjoyable, the crowd control element takes up quite a lot of your energy as a teacher. Sometimes I miss it. I miss using German because I love German, it's my passion, but it was quite hardwork and quite frustrating. This is more satisfying I would say.

WHAT is the biggest lesson you have learnt in business?
Initially working out what we needed to buy in terms of furniture and how to stock the shop and ways to bring in more business. For example we added the ice cream freezer because we thought that would be a good seller and then we got an alcohol license because we thought would be good. I suppose it's been a steep curve in learning what sells and what doesn't. Lots of good experiments and lots of bad ones.

WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?
I would say Kate Adie because she is very brave and very intelligent. Liam Neeson, because I've always had a bit of a soft spot for him and Hugh Dennis, because he is so funny.

WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?
The CD is one we have in the shop and it's 1,000 northern soul tracks, because I love northern soul. The book I'm currently reading is a collection of Irish short stories edited by Aaron Enright. The last film was ghost, about a ghost-writer with Ewan McGregor who played the role brilliantly.

Cut in opening hours at recycling centre could lead to fly-tipping and job losses

by Tom Glover

FLY-TIPPING and job losses could hit Bridport if plans to restrict the opening hours of the Household Recycling Centre are approved in March.

Town councillors reacted angrily to proposals last October that would have seen Bridport's Household Recycling Centre close at weekends for the next three years.

Dorset County Council (DCC) have now altered their proposal to open the site for six hours on Saturday, but only for garden waste.

The changes came after the DCC found the site would have to be open for a period at weekends in order to comply with the Environmental Protection Act.

Despite a step in the right direction town councillor Keith Day believes that Bridport residents need to make their voices heard. He said: "I will oppose any reduction in the scope of the use of the Bridport Recycling Centre in South Street, or in the hours that it operates.

"The centre is an important community amenity and any change could result in an increase in fly-tipping, with potential danger to local residents and possible loss of local jobs.

"It may also cause a degree of resentment by the people of Bridport who have continued to make full use of the site, despite difficulties of access. We have been waiting too long for a replacement site.

"I hope DCC will come up with a proposal that can address all the requirements and concerns of Bridport residents. If not, the people of Bridport should protest and make their voices heard."

Councillor Karl Wallace added: "It's ok opening up the centre for garden waste but what about when people have other waste, where do they go with that?

"For the amount of money it's going to cost them they might as well keep it open for everything."

DCC drew up the proposals following complaints from local residents about noise. It is hoped that the new proposal will appease local residents and help the site's temporary planning consent be extended for a sixth time.

If planning consent is not granted Bridport residents could face trips to sites across the border in Crewkerne and Chard for up to three years until the new waste transfer station is built.

Dorset County Council's head of waste management Steve Burdis said: "We continue to liaise with the county council's planning officers to find a suitable proposal to keep Bridport's household recycling centre in South Street open while our complex search for a new waste management centre site is ongoing.

"Accepting only garden waste on Saturdays has been proposed to minimise noise disruption to nearby residents, and because it's a key material people bring to the site at weekends.

"If the application is successful, no other waste will be accepted at the site on Saturdays and residents bringing other materials will be turned away. If we don't comply with the planning application the site could close altogether, which we are keen to avoid before a new facility is available.

"It's a difficult situation and we recognise that the proposal is not an ideal resolution. However, we've looked all the options to try and find a suitable solution which addresses the key concerns of nearby residents but also keeps the site open.

NEW PROPOSALS | Bridport's Household Recycling Centre may soon only be open for garden waste at the weekends

"We will keep local people informed of the Planning Committee's decision."

The application proposes to keep the centre open Mondays to Fridays as normal, and to open from 10am to 4pm on Saturdays for garden waste only.

If approved the application will see temporary planning consent on the existing facility extended for a further three years. The application is scheduled for discussion at Dorset County Council's Planning Committee in March.

Legal action threatened to save library

LEGAL action could be taken in the fight to save Burton Bradstock Library from closure.

The Association of Friends of Dorset Libraries (Ad Lib) are campaigning against proposed cuts, which would see West Dorset lose seven of its ten libraries, including the Burton Bradstock service.

The cut in funding would leave libraries in Dorchester, Bridport and Sherborne serving a population of around 100,000.

The Ad Lib group are planning to begin petitions in all the library's facing closure and are also looking at taking legal action under the 1964 Libraries Act.

Dorset County Council will meet on February 17th to discuss the proposed cuts before a final decision is made in July.

Ad Lib Media Spokesperson, Mike Chaney, said: "As the chairman of Puddletown Library I feel particularly bitter about the fate of Beaminster, Burton Bradstock and my own community as we have been supplying volunteer librarians to extend our hours, sometimes doubling the hours provided by professional staff, paid for by the county council.

"The volunteers are all local people who have been giving their spare time to keeping their libraries open and all the thanks they get is the news that they are now likely to lose their libraries altogether.

"Ad Lib is in close touch with campaigners in other nearby areas where there is a similar threat to libraries - for example in Somerset and in Devon.

"We are all considering legal action as we believe what our authorities are proposing to provide will fall foul of the 1964 Libraries Act, which requites that they provide a 'comprehensive and efficient' library service.

"We also believe that it is a step too far permanently to close so many libraries when all that Dorset County Council is required to do is save money over the next four years.

"We know that once our village and small town libraries are closed they will never reopen."

Funding to the library is set to cease in April 2012, Dorset County Council are currently working with the threatened communities to find locally led alternatives to running the service.

Crime figures down but police budget slashed challenge facing the force over the coming 12 months and beyond will be to continue to deliver the same level of policing to residents across Dorset with a considerable reduction in funding.

Over the next four years the force needs to reduce its spending by almost £17 million.

The force's One Team Programme has examined ways in which Dorset Police can become more efficient and generate savings, while delivering the best possible service across the county.

Chief Constable Martin Baker continued: "We cannot underestimate the severity of the financial challenge.

"Over the next four years the force needs to reduce its annual spending by £16.8 million, this is in addition to the in-year spending cuts of £2.6 million that we are already on track to deliver this financial year.

"However, we have a robust plan focused on achieving performance improvements by changing the way we are organised and achieving even better value for money and I firmly believe that our plan is achievable."

Magistrates mark 650 years of service in Dorset

DORSET Magistrates will be celebrating 650 years of service at Dorchester Court by acting out cases from centuries gone by later this month.

On Tuesday, January 25th the courts in High West Street will be opened to the public in order that they can witness first hand Magistrates dealing with cases as heard hundreds of years ago.

At regular intervals during the day, members of the Dorset Magistrates Association will re-enact the cases and pass sentences in line with original legislation.

The cases and sentences will be both realistic and accurate and offer members of the local communities the opportunity to witness justice 18th century style.

There will be a chance to visit the cells at the courts and see old style police and law enforcement uniform and equipment.

Visitors will then be transported to 2011 and witness the same cases based on today's laws.

Representatives from other criminal justice agencies including local officers from Dorset Police and Her Majesty's Court Service will be in attendance with crime prevention advice and information on how a court operates.

Local magistrates will also be on hand to offer advice to any member of the community who is thinking about applying to become a magistrate.

John Adams, JP, Chair of the Dorset Magistrates Association, said "We are very excited about marking this date in our history and we hope that members of the community will enjoy seeing the difference in justice then and justice now.

"It is very important that the Criminal Justice System is as open as possible in order that the community's confidence is maintained in one of the best legal systems in the world."

To further celebrate this momentous occasion there will be a service of commemoration at St Peter's Church, Dorchester at 12:30pm to which everyone is cordially invited.

Light refreshments will be available afterwards and Reverend Vicky Thurtell will conduct the service.

Entry to the court event, which runs from 9:15am to 4pm, is free and will be both educational and informative.

Twelve vehicles in A35 pile-up

by Paul Crompton

A TWELVE vehicle pile-up was the latest crash along the A35 which has seen five people hospitalised with serious injuries in just a week.

The latest incident at Askerswell saw a 70-year-old escape with only a broken ankle.

Four other motorists received minor injuries when the 11 cars and two heavy goods vehicles crashed in heavy fog.

Motorists were forced into long diversions after the road was closed for around three and a half hours between Dorchester's Monkey Jump and Bridport roundabouts.

Ambulances attended the scene at the crossroads of Litton Cheney and Long Bredy on January 13th along with fire crews and police.

Police crime scene investigators are continuing with their search for answers to explain the events surrounding the incident.

Earlier this week a 60-year-old motorcyclist received a fractured right leg when he crashed with a car on West Street in Bere Regis just off the A35.

The motorcyclist was taken to Dorset County Hospital by the county's police helicopter after he was involved with a head-on collision with a Ford Mondeo car.

The two people in the car were uninjured in the crash on the morning of Sunday, January 9th.

That same day three men in their 20s escaped with their lives when a dark coloured Rover 220 car they were travelling in smashed into a Charmouth wall.

The men were taken to Dorset County Hospital with serious injuries after their car drove through a wooden fence, careened across a grass verge and clipped a brick pillar before hitting a wall outside Thistlegate House Residential Care Home.

A Charmouth resident reported hearing a car with a modified exhaust driving up and down the road just before the accident at around 2am.

Police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the crash, involving the men from the local are aged 20, 23 and 25-years-old.

Your public transport questions answered at WATAG meeting

PUBLIC transport representatives are due to answer questions on the future of concessionary bus passes during a Bridport meeting.

The West Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) bi-monthly meeting is open to all members of the public interested in public transport matters.

With the future of concessionary bus passes hitting the headlines, WATAG will have a representative from Dorset Passenger Transport to give an update on this and other public transport matters. An invitation has been sent to bus and rail Operators to advise any developments.

WATAG secretary Joy Michaud said: "There will be a review of items raised at previous meetings and, as always, we will leave time for a 'democratic moment' when any individual may raise questions about local bus and rail services to which they would like answers."

She added: "The evening starts with the Annual General Meeting, at which the chair will give a quick review of the last 12 months and there will be an invitation to interested individuals to join WATAG's committee (known as the advisory group)."

The meeting will start at 6pm (half-an-hour earlier than normal to take account of the AGM) on Thursday, January 27th at the WI Hall, North Street, Bridport.

Anyone and everyone with a public transport problem is encouraged to come and talk about it. For further details, please contact the WATAG Secretary, Mrs Joy Michaud, on (01308) 897892.

Bridport lunch club facing closure

by Tom Glover

A SOCIAL lunch club for older people in Bridport is on the brink of closure after numbers have more than halved in three years.

The WRVS weekly lunch club has been providing meals for the over 60s in Bridport for 30 years but organiser Roger Stoodley has now put out a desperate appeal for new members.

At its peak the club was attracting 65 people a week and the WRVS were able to run group outings and give presents to its members at Christmas.

Mr Stoodley claims that numbers are now sometimes as low as 20 and the club is running at a loss.

The sudden loss of members has puzzled Mr Stoodley who has been attending the group for 18 years. He has launched a questionnaire to try and find out what needs to be improved.

"Of course you expect people to pass away, that happens, but a lot of the people who stopped coming are still in the town and are still active and we have been trying to find out why they are unable to come," he said.

"We decided we have got to sharpen our act a bit if we want to attract them but we can't identify everything as to why people don't come.

"We have got people there now who have been coming for 20 odd years, they seem happy with it but then you get people who come for a year and then go."

He believes that senior citizen meal deals at the town's restaurants and pubs may be responsible for some of the lost members.

He was also concerned that the club had become wrongly associated with being just for the poorer community.

"One problem is that some people think it's a club for poor people, which it isn't. It's a club for everyone in the town over 60 who wants to come and join others for a meal.

"There's a broad mix of people and we just want to encourage more people to come.

"The situation we are in now is desperate and I'd hate to see that 30 years of providing meals for people in the town would go just like that.

"Throughout the country we are losing services left, right and centre. This is not funded by anybody, its run by members of the club and I don't want to see it close after all these years.

"We want our old members to start coming back and enjoying our meals.

"When we were running at full strength we were able to run an outing and provide presents at Christmas but we can't do that now, we are skating along the bottom. We are on the brink of having to close down."

The club meet at 11am every Thursday at the United Church. A main meal and desert, with tea or coffee, are served at 12noon for the cost of £5 per person. Members new or old are encouraged to attend.

Council reject plans for car park toilets

A NEW site for town centre toilets may have to be found after the West Dorset District Council rejected plans for a £200,000 WC block in South Street car park.

The plans were rejected on a number of counts and the toilet block may now have to be moved to another site. During the initial consultation locations near to town council offices at Mountfield and Waitrose car park were considered.

The current proposal was rejected due to its "utilitarian design", the affect it would have on nearby residents, the safety issue of having the toilets located in the centre of the car park and the "unacceptable" loss of eight car parking spaces.

West Dorset District Council Development Control Committee Chairman Fred Horsington said: "Councillors refused the planning application after carefully considering it against all the normal planning policies and after taking into account views received via the consultation process.

"Reasons for refusal included the impact of the proposed public conveniences on the character and appearance of the Bridport Conservation Area and surrounds.

"Impact of the proposed building on neighbouring residential properties, loss of car parking spaces and potential conflict between vehicles and pedestrians using the car park were also factors."

Town and district Councillor Karl Wallace said: "It was a unanimous vote from all the councillors.

"They felt it was a poor design, it was in the wrong place, it was within 57 foot of residential property, they had health and safety concerns and there were concerns that there was no CCTV camera coverage in the area and so the toilets could attract anti social behaviour.

"Unfortunately it was the right outcome for that decision. I think there will be alternative sites nearer to the town hall, which they can now look at.

You may find that the council now look at other alternative sites, they could now look at a site at the entrance of the car park or possibly at Downes Street or in the Waitrose car park."

Nearby residents were delighted by the outcome having expressed strong objections to the proposals.

Colfox head delighted with school league tables

THE headteacher of the Sir John Colfox School in Bridport has praised her staff and pupils after another successful GCSE year.

Following the publication of the school league tables, headteacher Kay Taylor said that the school's pass rates were a credit to the hardwork of her pupils.

Five A* to C grades were achieved by 82 per cent of pupils last year.

She also reserved special praise for her staff and special needs students.

"The staff of the school have done an excellent job to ensure that the students have a sound basis for moving on in their career," she said.

"We were particularly delighted at the results for our Special Needs students which were outstanding.

The contextual value added for the year group is extremely positive, showing what excellent progress they made during the time that they were with us.

"The post 16 league tables show that yet again the joint sixth form of Beaminster and the Sir John Colfox School has done exceptionally well both in terms of average points scores and in terms of the progress that students have made as shown in the value added measure.

"We are very pleased that our sixth form students continue to do so well and that 96 per cent of them were accepted on a course or university of their choice."

Bradpole residents to have their say with parish plan

by Tom Glover

THE future of Bradpole is in the hands of its residents after members of the Parish Plan committee launched a new questionnaire last week.

Bradpole residents met with West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin on Friday of last week to discuss the progress of the community's Parish Plan. The plan, which has the support of the Bradpole Parish Council, will take up to 12 months to produce but will provide easier access to funding for activities once in place.

A questionnaire, to be distributed to the community this week, was launched at the meeting.

The questionnaire is another opportunity for residents to have their say on how they would like to see the community developed.

This follows on from a meet and greet exhibition held in October 2010 where residents suggested ideas on how they wanted the community to develop, including social, economic and environmental concerns.

PLANNING AHEAD | Members of the Bradpole Parish Plan committee before their meeting with MP Oliver Letwin last week

Oliver Letwin MP said: "This is a great thing, particularly as it is bringing together the different parts of the community, from those living in Pymore, around Jessops Avenue and in Bradpole. I look forward to seeing your progress."

Chairman Frederick Hudson thanked everyone who had been involved in getting the questionnaire ready and helping with its distribution.

The questionnaire will be delivered to residents this week and people have until February 14th to complete it. Those people who provide contact information once they have completed the questions will be entered into a prize draw to win a meal voucher for two at The Pymore Inn.

There are a number of drop-off points throughout the community for people to leave their completed questionnaires. These include the Bradpole Post Office, the Co-op store, the Kings Head Pub and the Pymore Inn.

To view the questionnaire online or to keep up-to-date with the progress of the Parish Plan visit www.bradpole.org.uk or email bradpole.pp@live.co.uk

The final plan is expected to be circulated to residents at the end of 2011.

Death of Chideock Players stalwart

by Stuart Broom

A TEACHER and actor who made people laugh both on stage and in life has died after a long battle with cancer.

Former drama teacher Chris Lambert, who died peacefully at home, was a leading member of the Chideock Players.

Despite his illness he continued to tread the boards; his last performance playing the part of Jesus in a dramatised sketch at St Giles' Church in Chideock last summer.

Chris, who was 61, was born in Portsmouth and attended the city's Grammar School.

He knew from an early age that he had a passion for drama and English, and on leaving school attended teacher training at CF Mott College in Liverpool; his choice being based on the fact he wanted to taste life in the North having never been there before.

His first job was at Bankfield Girls School in Liverpool in the early 70s where he was pursued by one of his elder pupils Ann Jordan.

The romance blossomed after he invited her out on her last day at school and they married two years later.

They moved to Sussex where Chris took the job of Head of English at Manhood High School in Selsey.

Here he created a drama department which inspired many of his pupils to becoming aspiring actors.

A keen sportsman he joined Chichester Hockey Club and also formed a mixed Sunday team of teachers, as much for the social interest as the sport.

A good squash player and excellent tennis player, he was also a good skier and helped on school trips.

Their two children Dewi, now 24, and Jessamy (20) were born in Sussex before they moved to Bridport in 1992 where Chris took the post of Head of Drama and second in English; he became a popular teacher with both pupils and staff.

He continued his hockey with Chard, and was a member of the school staff's social cricket team, The Wildfowlers, and could often be seen at Beaminster Ladies Hockey Club matches supporting his daughter Jes and the team.

He was also a massive walking fan and had a library full of maps. Such was his passion he became a tour guide for HS Holidays on walks around the UK and Europe.

He retired from teaching in 2001 but got great pleasure from driving the local 'Dial-a-Bus' service collecting people from the outlying villages and bringing them into Bridport where he always had a cheery smile and funny riposte.

A great Pompey fan he also supported Yeovil Town and often attended their home matches.

Having always had a passion for acting, he joined the Chideock Players drama group in 2001 where he became one of the leading members of their productions, and as well as starring in major roles, also directed two of the shows. He was also a current member of the committee.

Friend and colleague Nick Baker told View From: "I have many fond memories of acting with Chris, and he will be sadly missed.

"He was great fun to be with and his acting skills were of the highest standard for an amateur. He was very disciplined, but always very generous of other performers.

"His first acting part was as Dame Poppy in the pantomime Jack and the Beanstalk. He had never played the dame before and distinguished himself by not shaving off his beard!

"He also directed two plays, Daisy Pulls It Off and The Golden Pathway. Both were very successful and reflected Chris' love of getting young people interested.

"Daisy, which involved a large number of predominately young teenage girls as it was set in a girls school, is said to be one of the best productions ever put on by the Chideock Players, and nobody apart from Chris would have attempted to produce it, let alone make a success of it which showed his directing to the maximum."

"Despite his illness he continued to act, and I was privileged to play the part of Zacharias, the debt collector, to his Jesus in his last role in a dramatised sketch in St Giles Church last summer."

Chris also had taken part in some Encore Club productions.

The funeral takes place next Tuesday (January 25th) at St Mary's Church, Bridport at 12 noon.

Toller residents to foot bill if they want council to buy pub

THE community of Toller Porcorum must foot the bill if they want West Dorset District Council to save The Old Swan pub.

The WDDC have contacted the Toller Porcorum Parish Council to ask if they are prepared to support a community acquisition of The Old Swan through a compulsory purchase order.

The parish council are being asked to prepare a business plan that demonstrates that the pub is viable as a community pub.

The parish council must also reserve the sufficient funds to acquire and refurbish the premises.

The pub had previously failed to sell at an auction in December where owners Palmers had set a reserve price of £165,000 on the building.

Campaigners believe that once purchased it would cost an extra £300,000 to renovate and refurbish the former pub.

The WDDC Executive Committee discussed the possibility of a community acquisition on Tuesday of last week.

Leader of West Dorset District Council, Robert Gould, said: "The district council has been working hard with the pub's owners and local people to find a suitable solution for use of the pub.

"Compulsory purchase is very much a last resort and the council would only be prepared to do this on the agreement that the local community immediately takes on the pub.

"The local community would be responsible for the associated costs and need to show that restoring and running the pub is a viable operation.

The executive committee report proposed, and the committee approved, that the parish council should be asked if they would be prepared to lead a community acquisition through compulsory purchase on this basis."

Palmers property agent Nigel Jones of Chesterton Humberts said: "It's a matter for the local community to decide how to respond to the council's decision."

A response has not yet been made by the parish council but Save the Old Swan campaigner Val Connelly was not pleased by the decision.

She said: "Frankly the Committee discussion was the one eyed leading the blind.

|They seem to have problems understanding the whole question of The Old Swan.

"They continue to accept Palmers' version of events and ignore anything we provide.

"Yes, they have said that if they compulsory purchase the pub, the Parish Council must take it over immediately.

"As it is just a derelict building, it will take some time and money after that to set it up for trading and, of course, as the council is insisting that all their costs are guaranteed by the parish council, we really don't know what the costs will be and whether it can be done.

"The parish council has requested full information from WDDC but still awaits a reply."

Katy makes bald move for India charity trip

A COURAGEOUS volunteer from Bridport is making a "bald" move for charity by saying goodbye to her hair.

University graduate Katy Star Stocker has just been awarded a Graduate Bursary with Raleigh International, an educational volunteer charity, to spend time in India.

In order to fund her trip Katy needs to raise £1,000, which she hopes to do with a sponsored head shave next week.

Raleigh work with communities to help those who are disadvantaged, and to provide a sustained positive impact in the places they carry out projects.

In February Katy will embark on a ten-week long series of projects, which will provide vital facilities to impoverished people in India and protect the country's natural habitat and wildlife before finishing with a tough 19-day trek.

Both Raleigh and the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills are covering two thirds of Katy's cost, leaving her to raise a further £1,000.

If Katy can raise £500, she will be having her head shaved next Wednesday, January 26th and if she raises a further £500 she may say goodbye to her eyebrows as well.

Bedding required for Monkey World

BRIDPORT Post Office are appealing for clean bedding in support of their latest charity campaign.

The staff, who are strong supporters in helping a variety of charities, have chosen Monkey World, near Wareham, as their spring project.

Owner Graham Burridge has already delivered 130kg of bananas, donated by a local business, to the rescue and rehabilitation of primates, particularly chimpanzees.

The centre is looking for clean bedding in the form of sheets and blankets as well as towels, and the post office is setting up a collection point during normal working hours.

Sorry – no crocheted pieces as the monkeys get their fingers and toes caught in them!

BRIDPORT CRIME UPDATE

ARRESTS

FIVE arrests were made by police in Bridport last week.

Two arrests were made for assault and two people were arrested for drug related crimes.

One person was arrested for the possession of controlled drugs and another suspected of dealing drugs. There was one arrest made for obtaining property by deception.

BATTERY THEFTS

THIEVES made off with a haul of car batteries following a break-in on Tuesday of last week.

On the evening of Tuesday, January 11th thieves stole 15 car batteries from a location near Broadwindsor.

Another theft occurred during the morning of Friday, January 14th, scrap lead and copper piping was stolen from the grounds of a farm near Bridport.

CRIMINAL DAMAGE

A MAN in his thirties has been arrested after a series of incidents that damaged vehicles and properties last week.

Police recorded criminal damage to eight vehicles and properties including a sign and a shop window.

A further burglary was reported to police during the early hours of Friday, January 14th. Police attended the locations and later arrested a 31-year-old local man in connection with these offences.

The male has been questioned and is currently on police bail pending further evidence.

PC Scott McGregor of Bridport Police said: "If you have any information regarding the above offences or any other crimes, then please come forward and help us with our enquiries: it may be your evidence, which successfully secures a conviction.

"Instead of accepting that crime is part of the Bridport society, let's give the courts the facts and allow them to decide."

● If you have any information contact Bridport Police station direct, or speak to Crime Stoppers on 0800 555 111 - all calls will be treated in confidence.

Charity supporters lobby MP

CHRISTIAN Aid supporters from Bridport joined members of the Hilfield Community at the weekend to lobby Oliver Letwin on tax avoidance.

Christian Aid representatives Lorna Johnson of St Mary's Church, Bridport and Peter Glanville of St Swithun's Church, Bridport joined the Hilfield Community in Dorchester to share their concerns about corporate tax dodging with West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin.

Local campaigners highlighted the impact that international tax dodging by multinational corporations had on the plight of the world's poorest people.

Thirty West Dorset constituents added their voices to Christian Aid's call for a change in International Accounting Standards, which would mean companies are forced to report their business activities and tax bill for each country in which they operate.

Campaigners hope that this transparency would then shine a light on which companies are dodging their basic responsibilities in developing countries.

Lorna Johnson said: "People in Bridport helped us raise nearly £5,000 in street collections last May and this goes to great local projects in poor countries, but we need more than aid.

"We also need some justice - developing countries could do so much with the tax money that is owed to them."

Oliver Letwin responded positively to the idea, and said he would take up an invitation to meet with Christian Aid's new director, Loretta Minghella.

Speaking after the meeting, Brother Damian from the Hilfield Community said: "It is crucial for local people to engage positively with their MP about issues of international importance, as well as more local concerns".

Two meetings will be held next month to discuss the issue. Both meetings will be held on Thursday, February 3rd.

The first will be at 2:30pm at Beach & Barnicott, Bridport and the second will be at 7:30pm at the Lyme Regis Baptist Church.

The meetings are open to all. Issues will be presented and discussed with films and music.

ViewLetters Night light could be beneficial

DO YOU think the St Andrew's Road Residents Association will be complaining about the about the light produced by the Sun when daylight lasts up to and beyond 8pm during our summer month?

On Midsummers Day it is often still light at 10pm; the lights at the Lidl store are turned out when the shop closes for the day at 8pm.

The illuminated sign the fuss is all about will surely also be switched off at this time. One would have thought local residents would appreciate the extra security supplied free of charge by the area being well lit during some of the hours of darkness.

Any would be intruder would certainly be deterred if a residence they intended to enter was well illuminated.

May I suggest curtains or blinds could help keep out any unwanted 'light emissions' or do some of the inhabitants stand out in their gardens just to look at them and grumble.

Should the St Andrew's Road platoon care to patrol other areas of the town they would observe the three massive Morrisons illuminated signs in full view on their building, the Heavers buildings fully illuminated and Top Gear displaying two extremely bright spot lights shining straight across the road into nearby gardens.

These three sets of lights are on all night long, and you are complaining about one sign which will more than likely be turned off during out of trading hours, and one security fluorescent tube at the front of the store, a feature in most business premises these days.

One can only wonder how many houses in a road of some 190 plus dwellings will actually be in view of this so say obtrusive signage. This complaint is obviously a case of Nimbyism to the extreme.

Toller Porcorum pub saga continues

IT IS often the case that it is not so much what is said but what fails to be said which makes all the difference.

Having attended the last WDDC Executive Committee in Dorchester, we were interested to hear Mr Gould inform the members present that The Old Swan at Toller Porcorum failed to sell.

The impression was thus given that no one was prepared to buy it. What he did not tell the members was that a large number of people attended the auction but the auctioneer declared a high reserve on the property before the auction commenced – a highly unusual procedure – and refused to accept any bids below it.

An individual present at the auction attempted to get the auction going by calling out a bid but this was refused.In essence, any interested parties were prevented from bidding.

We know that the value of a property is what someone is willing to pay for it and by refusing to allow bids to commence below a high reserve price effectively prevents the true market value from being established.

If the high reserve price of The Old Swan is added to the estimated £300,000 which has to be spent on it, then it clearly takes it far beyond the price of a comparable freehold pub ready to trade.

Perhaps we should be relieved that no one was prepared to pay well beyond its value as a leasehold as, clearly at the very least, business acumen and common sense is needed by any potential buyer.

The first Christmas lunch of the year

CHRISTMAS COMES EARLY | Round Table treasurer Paul Fowler and chairman Alun Horniblow visit Chancery House

THE first Christmas lunch of 2011 was held last week at Bridport's Chancery House.

The day care centre had to postpone its December Christmas lunch due to bad weather but managed to re-arrange the event for January.

Two sittings were held over two days in order to cater for the centre's 120 users. The lunch was sponsored for the third year running by the Bridport Roundtable who made a donation of £350.

Chancery House chef Sue Thomas prepared the food and all the diners also received a personal present, donated by local companies.

Chairman of the Chancery House Trustees Barbara Vousden said: "We would like to thank the Round Table for their constant help to us, this year has been very special and without them we wouldn't be able to do this.

"It's strange hearing Christmas carols and seeing Father Christmas hats in January but it's got a really nice feel about it."

Bridport Round Table Chairman Alun Horniblow added: "We've always supported Chancery House, we used to run a Christmas party for them and when that stopped we started this.

"We've increased it year by year and it's good to be able to help give these people a Christmas meal. We had to postpone it because of the weather but its good fun and everyone's enjoying it."

with MP OLIVER LETWIN

The thought of the Select Committee makes Christmas a distant memory

THE Christmas holidays (rather shorter for some of us than others) are now firmly over and Westminster is back to work with a vengeance.

From my own point of view, the dates of Parliament sitting are not particularly significant, since both constituency work and the work of government go on regardless of the Parliamentary timetable – and, as someone with responsibility for policy in general rather than for any particular Department, I do not find myself spending hours and hours taking particular legislation through the House of Commons.

But, occasionally, I am called into the House to answer questions from a Select Committee or on the floor of the House itself. And this is exactly what happened just after Parliament came back to work in the New Year. I was commanded to appear before the Public Administration Select Committee to answer questions about the Government's business plans.

This is a fairly terrifying ordeal for any Minister. The Government's business plans span around 500 pages of densely packed timetables and data. And, despite the fact that I have been involved in constructing all of them, it is manifestly impossible to remember everything about all of them at any one moment.

But the members of the Select Committee in a horseshoe opposite the luckless interviewee, can ask anything about anything and they certainly expect a coherent answer without delay.

You have only got to exhibit a slight hesitation and a pause for thought to find yourself with the piercing eyes of every member of the Committee clearly indicating that they have spotted a Minister who doesn't know what he is talking about.

And, of course, there is nothing that Parliamentarians enjoy more than discovering that a fellow Member who has the luck to be in ministerial office is incompetent.

The other terrifying feature of the scene is that there is a very fine convention that, however rebarbative or aggressive the Committee becomes, the witness appearing before it must always recognise it as an emanation of the majesty of Parliament and must maintain complete courtesy.

So any attempt to respond in a way that would suggest any lack of esteem for the Committee itself, or for the questions it is posing is regarded as a case of lèse majesté and leads to immediate disaster for the Minister or other witness concerned.

This, of course, helps to keep the atmosphere much more sensible than it typically is in the bear-pit of Prime Minister's Questions; but it also means that you have a very distinct feeling of treading continuously on egg shells.

In the event, on this occasion, I am happy to report that the Committee was gentle enough – but preparing for the event and walking into the room was certain enough to dispel any memories of the Christmas pudding.

Cut waste, bin less, save money

REDUCING waste by one kilo per household a week could save Dorset County Council a massive £800,000 this year. Last year Dorset households threw away a total 200,000 tonnes of rubbish - the same weight as around 14,000 double decker buses. Around 97,000 tonnes of this household waste was sent to landfill resulting in a cost to the Dorset taxpayer of £6.8million. Over the next four years landfill tax is set to rocket by an extra £32 a tonne costing around a further £3m per year.

Residents are being urged to cut the amount of rubbish they throw in their bins by a kilo a week. If every household reduced their waste by the equivalent of a bag of sugar, Dorset could save £800,000 this year, increasing to £1.1m in four years time.

Dorset County Council's cabinet member for the environment Robert Gould said: "Residents have shown they are enthusiastic recyclers but we want to encourage them to go further and reduce the amount of waste they produce in the first place. As landfill costs are set to escalate, it's increasingly important for people to bin less rubbish.

"The easiest way to cut waste by a kilo a week is to reduce the amount of food thrown in the bin. Surprisingly, around a third of the food we buy ends up being thrown away. Cutting this will save money on weekly food bills and help protect the environment as well as help us reduce our huge landfill tax and disposal costs - imagine how the money saved could be put to better use on providing other services."

RECYCLING TIPS

IF RESIDENTS haven't made their New Year's resolutions, reducing, reusing, recycling and composting as much of their waste as possible is simple to do and really makes a difference. Here are some tips for a low waste lifestyle:

- Home compost your kitchen and garden waste;
- Return junk mail and remove your name from junk mail lists - www.mpsonline.org.uk or www.thepreferenceservice.com;
- Choose goods with less packaging;
- Don't waste food - the Love Food Hate Waste campaign (www.lovefoodhatewaste.com) has lots of great tips, advice and tasty recipes for using leftovers;
- Donate unwanted furniture, computers and white goods to furniture reuse groups;
- Avoid single-use disposable products, e.g. nappies, facewipes, razors and kitchen towels;
- Go reusable! Instead of throwing away old batteries and buying a new packet each time, try rechargeable ones,
- Repair and mend items rather than throwing them away;
- Reuse containers and buy refills wherever possible;
- Remember small electrical items such as mobile phones, electric toothbrushes, electronic toys and kettles can be recycled along with larger items like TVs, fridges and freezers at household recycling centres.

Wassailing tradition lives on in Bridport

THE old tradition of wassailing was upheld for the third year running at Bridport's Community Orchard last weekend.

On Sunday afternoon a group of around 90 apple lovers defied the rain and, fortified by hot cider and apple juice and warmed by the glowing logs on the new fire bowl, sang wassailing songs to encourage the trees in the forthcoming year.

One of the bigger trees was fêted as the Apple Tree Man and given a special offering of ginger cake and cider by one of the youngest wassailers.

As the wassail bowl, hand crafted by Mace Brightwater from local ash wood, was passed round the orchard for all to drink from, everyone offered cider and bread to the other trees.

A new banner with a pattern representing the tree of life, and the fruits of the orchard, was flying at the event after being installed by Andy Hawthorne.

The apple orchard AGM will be held in the Arts Centre at 7:30 pm on Wednesday, January 26th.

Perrott Hill

Schools now treat our children as though they are made of china" wrote the author Conn Iggulden this autumn. He raised concerns about teachers who worry about organising school trips for fear of litigation, about schools which avoid contact sports and even hesitate over traditional games such as conkers.

It goes without saying that all teachers and parents wish their children to be safe in their school environment but we also have a duty to prepare them for future life where competition, risk and adventure are experienced on a regular basis. Creating an environment where the perceived danger is great, but the actual danger is small is a fine art and one that is still alive here at Perrott Hill. We encourage our children to play in the woods, we play games on a daily basis, we enjoy snowball fights when the weather allows (staff vs pupils being a favourite) and we have a talented and dedicated staff who ensure that these activities can occur with controlled risks. It is no coincidence that the children enjoy themselves, look forward to school and truly wish to learn.

We invest time in teaching manners and the common courtesies which are so often overlooked in the rush of modern-day life. We spend time learning about eye contact, greetings and opening doors; and how important these skills will be as our children inherit the world in which we live.

We endeavour to give our children the opportunity to experience as many different activities as possible for if we cannot do this when they are young, when do we find the time? We strive to find something that each and every child can excel in; be it academic, sporting or artistic and when they achieve their goals the children feel good about themselves, they walk tall and, as a result, their performance improves all aspects of school life.

All this is best summed up by the Registrar of a very well-known public school in a quote from the 2010 Good Schools Guide review: 'the Perrott Hill pupils who come to us have retained the wonder of childhood instead of parading themselves as young adults'. In the words of the Good Schools Guide, Perrott Hill 'is a traditional prep school of the best sort.'

Rob Morse, the Headmaster, warmly invites you to come and visit Perrott Hill and to see for yourself what the school has to offer.

Perrott Hill Open Mornings: Friday 21st and Saturday 22nd of January.

Perrott Hill Scholarship Day: Friday 4th February

Boat Building Academy

Learn Boatbuilding or Woodworking at the Boat Building Academy in Lyme Regis

'The Boat Building Academy on Mon-mouth Beach in Lyme Regis offers inten-sive training in boat building, boat main-tenance/repair and allied skills, as well as woodworking, to people ranging from beginners to professionals. Courses, all of which are intensive and highly practi-cal, last from one day to 38 weeks. The Academy does not undertake commercial work, but offers students on the 38 week course the opportunity to build a boat for themselves as part of the City & Guilds qualification. The Academy is the only place in the world where people can do this. Every type of construction is cov-ered, from traditional and modern wood to plastic and resin infusion. The end of the course is celebrated by launching the boats built into Lyme Regis harbour. The Academy believes in 'doing' not 'talking about doing'; stu-dents on the 8 week 'Woodworking Skills' course design and make a piece of furniture in addition to taking a City & Guilds qualification. Academy graduates go on to work in every area of the marine industry all over the world.'

Weymouth College

Vocational courses are another route to university

Most people don't realise that universities take other qualifications as entry requirements, not just A Levels. BTEC National Diplomas and Extended Diplomas, some NVQ Level 3 awards including some Apprenticeships and, additionally for mature students, the Access to Higher Education course.

In the academic year 2009/10, 94% of students on vocational courses at Weymouth College who applied to university were offered a place and 112 of them took up their places in September 2010. A few of those students chose to stay at Degree Centre Weymouth for their Higher Education study whilst the others went to universities across the whole of England.

Each vocational course area at Weymouth College is represented by an industry panel so that the students receive the most up-to-date training for their industry. The industry-relevant courses improve their CVs and give them real world knowledge once they begin their first full-time job or start at university.

You can find out more about the range of courses on offer at Weymouth College by calling 01305 761100 or visiting www.weymouth.ac.uk/courses.

Thistlegate House

Thistlegate House is a splendid and most elegant residential care home which offers "possibly the finest residential care in the south west". The Grade II Lutyens inspired "arts and crafts" style property retains the ambience of a fine country residence with it's timber beamed ceilings and stone feature fireplace. The large comfortable lounge which is set out in a manner to encourage conversation or privacy as desired, overlooks the formal part of the four acre grounds which boasts many fine trees, terraces, walkways and a delightful sunken garden together with far reaching views of the surrounding countryside across to Lyme bay.

As you enter Thistlegate House the comfortable calm relaxed atmosphere is immediately apparent and welcoming. The accommodation is spacious and tastefully decorated as you would expect of a house of this style. The high quality care is provided by a very experienced professional staff together with the resident proprietors, June Webb and John Corney, who are available to residents and staff alike throughout the day and night which ensures that the very highest standards of care are maintained at all times. The excellent cuisine at Thistlegate House is a very important part of daily life with the highly varied menus being planned by the chefs and June Webb on a daily basis, the elegant dining room provides the ideal setting where the residents receive silver service.

Great emphasis is placed upon achieving a feeling of wellbeing for the residents of Thistlegate House by appreciating their individuality and providing the care that they need in the manner that they require. There are many additional aspects and services available to residents at Thistlegate House. We would be pleased to discuss these, along with the level of care required for yourself, a relative or perhaps a friend and establish exactly how we at Thistlegate House may be of help to you.

Golden Years

Help and Care when you need it

Clarondene

Anyone can dream in January!

We all love the hurly-burly of the Christmas period. Remember the flashing lights, strings of cards with their good wishes, paper-chains we all worked on that kept coming unstuck, crackers with silly jokes, visits followed by noises of wrapping paper? Our decorations this year had to be 'kitten-proof', so the baubles went on glittery string around the ceiling and the tree gleamed with extra lights and tinsel. Our balcony was admired by all who braved the snow and ice of View Road during December.

Now it's over and the decorations are packed away for another year and the walls look so bare. Well, how dull if we can't brighten up the worst of the winter!

So, we decided to leave the garden fairy lights up, many coloured, and twinkling day and night. They cheer up the grey days and fascinate in the rain of the dark evenings at the beginning of the year. Joan's decided to keep the 2 strings of golden baubles I bought when Woolworths closed down, and they cheer her sleepless nights and contrast with the coloured fairy lights she can see in the garden through the partially opened curtains.

We make the best of the dark days and miserable weather together. We've bought endless games and stuff during the sales to amuse us and have dug out the old favourites of Bagatelle, velcro 'dart' board and Table Skittles. We've also discovered 'Bananagrams', based on the idea of individualised Scrabble, but using a better quality of letter tiles and no more waiting ages for your turn and then finding your letter and space gone. You should try it – highly recommended by the young, ageing and elderly alike!

Our Christmas bulbs have all flowered, so the crocus and narcissus are being planted out to naturalise and the giant amaryllis will soon need to 'go to sleep' ready for next year. The garden planted bulbs are poking their heads through already and all the pansies have survived the worst of the weather, even if they are not actually flowering, poor things.

We said goodbye to Pat this month; although we miss her, she chose her time beautifully. We have some Happy Birthdays this month, and especially look forward to lovely Eileen's 4th with us next week. Pop in for tea if you need cheering up, you're always welcome.

Help this winter

Winter isn't everyone's favourite season and there's no doubt that the cold weather can be a worry for those of us later in life. But with a little preparation, and by following some simple suggestions, we can help ourselves stay healthy, safe and as comfortable as possible during these colder months.

Being prepared for the cold weather - which can last for as long as until the end of March - mean's you are more likely to keep warm this winter. Here's a list of things you can do to help ward off the winter chills:

- Have your heating serviced and chimney swept.
- If you have wood-burning, coal or gas heaters - make sure you have adequate ventilation.
- Check with your energy supplier for further advice to help you with these months.
- Check your water stopcock is working properly.
- Have your electric blanket serviced - this should be done at least every three years.
- Make sure your smoke alarm is working.
- Make sure you claim all the financial support you can to help with heating bills. Your local Age UK/Age Concern can advise you.
- Be sure you have some warm shoes or boots with non-slip soles.
- Keep a mixture of salt and sand handy to put on steps and paths in icy weather.
- Keep simple cold, flu and sore throat remedies to in the house. Your pharmacist can make suggestions and can also advise on how to manage minor illnesses.
- Follow up your GP's invitation to have a flu jab.
- Order repeat prescriptions in plenty of time, particularly if bad weather is forecast.
- Keep basic food items in the cupboard or freezer in case it's too cold to go shopping.
- If you smoke, think about trying to stop.

Beautiful fashion boutique for 'real' women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brainchild of proprieter Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were bemoaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30".

Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Sempre Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few.

Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

Figure Eight has launched their new website where you can browse the new autumn/winter collections and can be made aware of sesonal promotions and events.

Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accesories whatever your size.

BragaTanga bring their mesmerising folk to Dorset

VIBRANT Cornish quartet BragaTanga returns to rural Dorset by high demand, following their popular Spring and Autumn tours here in 2010.

This quartet present an exotic mix of world folk music, Eastern European gypsy tunes and mesmerising melodies from near and distant lands, and will tour to Buckland Newton Village Hall on Saturday, January 22nd from 7.30pm.

BragaTanga consists of four well-travelled and well-seasoned musicians with considerable musical and theatrical experience, including forming the core of the Eden Project's house band. Frontman Jim Carey was a longstanding Musical Director for Kneehigh, and has also composed music for Miracle Theatre and National Theatre.

The foot-tapping four deliver a gripping performance, taking the audience on a global journey through French waltzes, tango, Finnish polskas, songs from Sicily, Turkey, and Africa delivered with passion and dexterity. Tavaziva Dance show at the Corn Exchange

WITH his fantastically exuberant dancers, choreographer and musician Bawren Tavaziva performs an intense double bill at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday (January 21st), exploring the idea that there are two sides to every story…through adversity there comes triumph, through pain there comes love, after a storm comes a calm.

The show is a celebration of culture, hardship, agony and joy and demonstrates the impact of black dance choreographer Bawren Tavaziva on contemporary dance in Britain.

Bawren Tavaziva grew up in Harare in Zimbabwe where football, Michael Jackson, and Kung Fu movies provided his artistic inspiration. He practiced the dance styles, karate moves and football skills in the neighbourhood streets where the children gathered. In his teens he joined a dance programme created by The National Ballet targeting talented under-privileged youngsters. It was the start of a dance career where he went on to tour extensively the African sub-continent and Europe and in 2004 he formed Tavaziva Dance.

The show starts at 8pm, and doors open at 7.30pm. There will also be a post-show discussion.

Tickets cost £10, £8 member or £6 for under 18s. A special offer is available on advance ticket bookings - regular tickets cost £9 and under 18s £5. To book please call 01305 266926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

James Ball Naylor presumably wrote this verse in tribute to his own wife. It is a fine sentiment that many of we fortunate husbands can identify with.

TO HER WHO KEEPS MY DWELLING-PLACE

I care not if the hour be dawn
Or daylight's close, or whether
The sun shine bright
From morn till night,
In cloudless harvest weather;
One gleam of sunshine from the face
Of her who keeps my dwelling-place,
Is more than all together!

What matter if the cold gray clouds
Of winter – yea, what matter! –
Speed far and fast
Before the blast,
And fleecy snowflakes scatter!
One hand-clasp of her heart-warm hand
Will melt the snowdrifts from the land –
And bring the bluebird's chatter!

And though each fleeting season bring
Its measured mead of sorrow,
I drink the wine
Of love divine,
And look to her and borrow
A ray of sunshine from the skies
That lie within her honest eyes –
And bless the coming morrow!

THE First Earl of Dorset, Thomas Sackville, died 400 years ago but we are still enjoying his poetry. This verse is included in the National Trust's recently published "Ode to the Countryside" anthology.

AT MIDNIGHT

Midnight was come, and every vital thing
With sweet sound sleep their weary limbs did rest,
The beasts were still, the little birds that sing,
Now sweetly slept beside their mother's breast,
The old and all well shrouded in their nest;
The waters calm, the cruel seas did cease,
The woods, the fields, and all things held their peace.

The golden stars were whirl'd amid their race,
And on the earth did with their twinkling light,
When each thing nestled in his resting-place,
Forget day's pain with pleasure of the night;
The hare had not the greedy hounds in sight,
The fearful deer of death stood not in doubt,
The partridge dreamt not of the falcon's foot.

FAST forwarding four centuries, this poem by Shirley Curran appeared in the Literary Review in June 2006. If you are a disgruntled granny perhaps it will provoke you into militant action or – maybe more likely – just make you smile.

HELL'S GRANNIES

Rise! Throw away the zimmers and rebel!
Disrupt the House of Commons!
Make life Hell!
With brollies armed and handbags,
fight the cause
Of abrogating patronising laws.
No namby-pamby free bus pass for us
'In off-peak hours'. No! We'll hijack the bus.
In perfect wheel-chair phalanx we shall barge
Into discussions of each standing charge
And reprimand misguided milksop youth
And browbeat them until they grasp the truth
That we, Hell's Grannies are the nation's power:
Age sixty ushers in our finest hour.
We'll brandish walking sticks and rage and rant
And hector public servants till they grant
Free winter warmth and raise our pensions too,
Die? That's the very last thing we shall do!

Top comedy trio at the Marine Theatre

THE Marine Theatre is hosting a new comedy night this Friday (January 21st), featuring three of the UK's best comedians; John Warburton, Andy Watson and Chris Brooker (MC).

JOHN WARBURTON

John's friendly, yet cutting, routine lends itself to a wide range of clubs and audiences. His set combines one-liners, cutting observational comedy, surreal flights of fantasy and the occasional brilliantly written song.

Fresh back from headlining shows at the inaugural Dubai Comedy Festival for which Time Out gave him FIVE stars (well, they were fez's actually) and labelled him: "definitely one of the fest's best." Not a bad accolade on a roster which included Perrier nominated Jason Mannford, Phil Nichol and Stephen K Amos.

"Warburton is much in demand at the moment. His set bursts with clever wordplay and smart-Alec asides." - TIME OUT

"Rock'n'roll and very, very funny," – LOADED

"Cracking jokes non-stop... a comedian who is fast making a name for himself with his confidence, intelligence and wit." - GORDON BARR, THE EVENING CHRONICLE, NEWCASTLE

ANDY WATSON

This quick-fire act immediately grabs audiences with his sharp one-liners and leaves them in hysterics with his playful style and physical comedy skills. In October 2005 he won the City Life North West Comedian of the Year Award (past winners of the prestigious award have included Peter Kay, Caroline Aherne, Dave Spikey and Jason Manford). In 2008 he supported Paddy McGuinness on his 'Plus You!' Tour, for 29 dates.

"An irresistible, infectious style that had the audience rapt from the get-go." CHORTLE

"Like a force of nature he grasped the crowd's attention and left them in hysterics." CITY LIFE

"His gags were superb and the performance element to his set was wholly original and uproariously funny. Definitely one to watch." THE HINCKLEY TIMES

CHRIS BROOKER (MC)

One of comedy's heavy hitters, Chris Brooker's infectious energy and enthusiasm sweeps through a room like an irresistible force. Chris' combination of hilarious, original material and inspired improvisation means that you will never see the same routine twice. Immensely likeable, there's no doubting his ability to win over any crowd and drag them along for the ride.

Chris has forged himself a fine reputation as a stand-up comedian, in particular as one of the country's best up and coming comperes. A member of ComedySportz, the resident improv troupe at Manchester's Comedy Store, Chris made history when he became the first British performer to be chosen for the All Star team at the annual World Championships in Portland, Oregon. A veteran performer in the UK, Chris has also performed in the U.S. and Canada, most famously when he was invited to participate in the Yuk Yuk's "Great Canadian Laugh Off" in Toronto.

A regular on the radio waves in and around Manchester, Chris also has three full length solo shows under his belt. "Path Of Least Resistance", "Please Hold, Chris Brooker Knows You Are Waiting" and "Unstoppable" have all received widespread acclaim from critics and audiences alike.

"Very funny, very quick… On the spot humour." BBC

"A fitting finale, had the audience in stitches." STUDENTONLINE

"The best act of the night, his quick wit silencing hecklers and getting plenty of laughs." MANCHESTER EVENING NEWS

The show starts at 8.30pm on Friday (January 21st) at the Marine Theatre. To pre-order tickets call 01297 442138.

Portman stars in the stunning Black Swan

BLACK SWAN [15]

Nina (Natalie Portman) is a ballerina in a New York City ballet company whose life, like all those in her profession, is completely consumed with dance. She lives with her obsessive former ballerina mother Erica (Barbara Hershey) who exerts a suffocating control over her. When artistic director Thomas Leroy (Vincent Cassel) decides to replace prima ballerina Beth MacIntyre (Winona Ryder) for the opening production of their new season, Swan Lake, Nina is his first choice. But Nina has competition: a new dancer, Lily (Mila Kunis), who impresses Leroy as well. Swan Lake requires a dancer who can play both the White Swan with innocence and grace, and the Black Swan, who represents guile and sensuality. Nina fits the White Swan role perfectly but Lily is the personification of the Black Swan. As the two young dancers expand their rivalry into a twisted friendship, Nina begins to get more in touch with her dark side - a recklessness that threatens to destroy her.

THE DILEMMA [12A]

A man finds out that what you don't say to a friend is just as important as what you do in this story of how far you can bend a brotherly bond before it snaps. Since college, confirmed bachelor Ronny (Vince Vaughn) and happily married Nick (Kevin James) have been through thick and thin. Now partners in an auto design firm, the two pals are vying to land a dream project that would launch their company. Ronny's girlfriend, Beth (Jennifer Connelly), and Nick's wife, Geneva (Winona Ryder), are by their sides. But Ronny's world is turned upside down when he inadvertently sees Geneva out with another man and makes it his mission to get answers. As the amateur investigation dissolves into mayhem, he learns that Nick has a few secrets of his own. Now, with the clock ticking and pressure mounting on the biggest presentation of their careers, Ronny must decide what will happen if he reveals the truth to his best friend.

GET LOW [12A]

Felix Bush (Robert Duvall) is a hermit who has no regard for anybody in the town or anyone who wants to get to know him. But one day, after a fellow old hermit as died and he hears people in the town telling stories about him, he decides that he needs to get these stories out in the public. He recruits Frank (Bill Murray) the local funeral home director to host his own funeral. This way he can hear what everyone is saying about him, and get the truth to his past out in the open. But will he be able to get anybody to come? And will he be able to reveal his secrets?

MORNING GLORY [12A]

Becky (Rachel McAdams) is a hard-working morning TV show producer, or at least she was until she got fired. Desperate to get a job, she finally gets an interview with Jerry (Jeff Goldblum) - who is desperate to hire a producer for the struggling show "Daybreak". Becky accepts the job and it proves to be more difficult than even she might be able to handle. She has to fire the sexist co-host, then try to convince egotistical news reporter, Mike Pomeroy (Harrison Ford), to take the job, and then try and get him to actually do the job, properly. And she has to do this while falling for handsome Adam (Patrick Wilson), and trying to save the show from plummeting ratings. Will Becky be able to hold on to her dream job and her sanity?

Also released this week is the stunning British coming of age drama NEDS [18], by Peter Mullan. The film is a raw, bleak look at 70s Glasgow as Mullan remembers it from his youth, particularly focusing on Neds (Non Educated Delingquents - a Scottish slang term referring to the Scottish equivalent of a 'chav').

Portuguese artist displays 'war rug' at Bridport Arts Centre

DOES a single object create an exhibition? In this instance, Bridport Arts Centre's Allsop Gallery features the first showing of artist Carlos Noronha Feio's latest and giant 'war rug' - so large it commands the entire gallery leaving only room for an audience, and this dramatic work certainly deserves a thoughtful one.

Carlos Noronha Feio is an artist who weaves his own national identity with others he encounters. His work is engaged with the points at which geography and migration meet, where different cultures collide, interfere and impose their own imperatives on each other.

War rugs have a long history in Afghanistan, revived significantly at the time of the Russian occupation a generation ago. As with other rugs designed and commissioned by Carlos, he works with carpet weavers in Arrailos in his native Portugal. They work only using local traditional techniques and methods of production. These express great similarities with those found in Afghanistan, both arising from the influences of the ancient Moorish culture they hold in common.

The exhibition programme includes talks, significantly a conversation between the artist and Michael Petry, curator of the Royal Academy Schools gallery and co-author of 'Installation art in the new Millenium.' His forthcoming book 'The art of not making - the artist, artisan relationship' from Thames & Hudson referencing Carlos's work, is being published in April.

A performance of a collaboration with musician Ergo Phizmiz will add a soundtrack to the several layers of meanings in the rug. Details of both events will be on the Arts Centre website.

The exhibition includes opportunities for group visits both discussion based, or practical, interactive sessions. If you think your school, community group or society would be interested in this, please contact the Box Office at Bridport Arts Centre.

The exhibition has been made possible with a grant from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, UK.

Wedding Fayre at the Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant - a 'most romantic waterside hotel'

FOLLOWING the success of their first Wedding Fayre last year the Alexandra is now putting on another show!

This is the perfect opportunity to see not only what the Alexandra has to offer but there will be exhibitors from the local area such as florists, photographers, cake makers, wine supplier, bridal wear designer and more.

Dorset's breathtaking coastline provides a naturally beautiful backdrop to weddings at the award-winning Alexandra Hotel in Lyme Regis, which was recently voted the 'Most Excellent Waterside Hotel 2011' by Conde Nast Johansens. In each area of the Hotel, including the latest wedding venue perched in a romantic garden setting – the Lookout Tower – there are breathtaking views of the historic Cobb harbour, Lyme Bay and the Jurassic Coastline.

Licensed for civil ceremonies, the Alexandra has a wonderful, intimate atmosphere for small weddings and for larger gatherings of up to 100 guests, the Wedding Breakfast can be enjoyed in the Conservatory or Alexandra Restaurant. However many guests are invited, they will find the Hotel's sweeping lawns the perfect place to gather for Champagne, Canapés, kisses and wonderful photographs that capture the very special atmosphere of the day.

If you're planning your Wedding, come and see what this fabulous Lyme Regis hotel and local Wedding suppliers can bring to you. Your Wedding day is one of the most important days of your life, so take your time to relax, perhaps walk around the beautiful grounds, look at the breathtaking views from the bridal suit, restaurants, garden and deck. Sit back and soak up the ambiance of this elegant grade II listed building and see if the Alexandra is right for you.

Everyone is welcome, information will be on display and our restaurants and show bedrooms will be available for all to view. Tea and coffee will be available in our conservatory restaurant throughout the day.

The Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant Wedding Fayre is held on Sunday, 23rd January 2011 from 11am-4pm. For more details visit www.hotelalexandra.co.uk/weddings , call 01297 442010 or email events@hotelalexandra.co.uk

WHISTLESTOP TOURS AND WASSAILING AT LYME MUSEUM

HAVE you ever wanted a whistle-stop tour of Lyme Regis Museum to see only the most important objects in the collection? Curator Mary Godwin will conduct such a tour today (Wednesday January 19th) at 2.30pm, stopping to talk about the items that she considers fill this category.

On Saturday, January 22nd at 6pm the museum's annual celebration of apple trees takes place – an indoor wassailing – with Adrian Pearson leading the singing and the Uplyme Morris men dancing. Go along dressed in your brightest colours, with your loudest voices to ensure a good crop of apples this year. Mulled cider, apple cake and song sheets provided.

Piers can interview Lily on one charity condition...

LILY GIVES PIERS AN ULTIMATUM | LILY Allen has snubbed Piers Morgan's offer of appearing on his Life Stories series, unless he gives £1 million to charity.

The Smile star, who has had two miscarriages, told Piers she wanted him to give the money to a stillbirth and neo-natal death charity that supports bereaved parents.

Writing on Twitter, she said: "i'd do it for a million for SANDS. money, mouth??????????????????"

Piers, whose guests on the ITV1 interview show have included Gordon Brown, Cheryl Cole and Simon Cowell, told Lily: "I will get ITV to make substantial five figure donation to your charity for the interview".

But the singer told him: "Those are my terms. I've got no interest in coming on your show, you've been asking me for years."

She revealed she had lost her second child in November and asked her two million followers on the social networking website to "say a little prayer".

Lily previously had a miscarriage when she was dating Chemical Brothers star Ed Simons in 2008.

Former Daily Mirror editor Piers is about to launch a new chatshow, which sees him take over from CNN legend Larry King, in the United States.

TWITTER CHALLENGE | Lily Allen has told Piers Morgan to put his money where his mouth is, for charity, if he wants an interview

DOWNTON BACK NEXT CHRISTMAS | Julian Fellowes' hit TV show Downton Abbey is to return with a new series for Christmas 2011, it has been announced.

The costume drama about the day-to-day life of a wealthy country family and their servants won legions of fans when it debuted last year, and viewers have been promised it will come back with an eight-part second series in the autumn.

Laura Mackie, director of drama at ITV said: "Julian has come up with a fantastic story that will give the audience the chance to enjoy the experience of the festive season at Downton Abbey. We're delighted to have this as part of our Christmas schedule for December 2011."

The first series, starring Hugh Bonneville as the Earl of Grantham and Maggie Smith as Dowager Countess of Grantham, ended with the outbreak of the First World War. The second series could see the entire master/servant dynamic turned upside down as the characters sign up to fight alongside one another to serve their country.

Downton Abbey premiered on ITV1 last September with an audience of 11.8 million and its finale on November 7 was watched by 12.8 million viewers, making episode seven the biggest audience for an episode of a new drama series on any channel since 2003.

The show has just opened the Classic season on the Masterpiece channel in the US, with early figures revealing that it has doubled the season's average audience, reaching 6.7 million people and making it the highest-rated show Masterpiece has transmitted in recent years.

RUTH RESIGNED TO SUPPORT ROLES | Ruth Jones has revealed she is resigned to playing supporting roles.

The Gavin and Stacey actress is about to star in BBC4 drama Hattie about the life of Carry On actress Hattie Jacques, but told The Independent she doesn't expect many lead roles to come her way.

Ruth said: "My ambition is always to play parts that are different and are a challenge. However you have to be realistic and I know that I'm never going to play Juliet... I will probably always play the nurse."

The Welsh actress and writer had her breakthrough in ITV series Fat Friends about a slimming club, and has had supporting roles in comedies Nighty Night and Little Britain, and costume dramas Little Dorrit and Tess of the D'Urbervilles.

She said: "I've been very lucky so far. I can't say people are knocking down my doors to play overweight Barry girls, because they're not."

But Ruth is currently working on Stella, a comedy for Sky she has written in and will star in about a 40-something mother, which she describes as "an authentic slice of the working-class Welsh valleys".

The award-winning comedy writer confessed: "All my life I've had this belief that other people are better than me. It's only now that I'm starting to realise I'm alright, that I'm not bad at what I do."

6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World

WINNER of the Arches Brick Award and nominated for a Total Theatre Award at the Edinburgh Festival 2009, 6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World and Won is a prescient tale for our times, touching on pertinent themes of ecology and sport, taking place at Weymouth College on Wednesday, February 16th.

Combining physical theatre, clowning and audience interaction, this is a delicate, funny, and touching exploration of how we cope with loss, on a human and on an environmental scale. It is the story of Heap Krusiak and Pebble Adverati, the greatest ice dancers of all time, who refuse to be defeated by a world that has run out of ice: instead they defiantly don their skates and perform their free dance, this time on a wooden floor, in theatres across the country.

6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World and Won was developed at the Battersea Arts Centre. It previewed at Latitude Festival as a Pick of the Pleasance, before premiering at the Edinburgh Fringe in August 2009 and will tour the UK in Autumn 2010.

The performance at Weymouth College, Cranford Avenue, Weymouth takes place on Wednesday, February 16th from 7.30pm. Tickets cost £11 (adults), £9 (Concs.) and free for season ticket holders. For more details or bookings call 01305 208 702.

TEDDY THOMPSON COMES TO BRIDPORT

TEDDY Thompson is a singer songwriter with a stunning voice and a huge amount of talent, but then again being the son of folk-rock legends Richard and Linda Thompson, he was always going to be...

Teddy developed his musical drive early in life and launched his first band while still in his early teens. By the time he released his self-titled solo debut in 2000, he'd served a stint in his father's touring band and contributed guitar and vocals to his dad's albums You? Me? Us? and Mock Tudor. He subsequently co-produced and played on his mother's 2002 comeback disc Fashionably Late, and toured as a member of Rosanne Cash's backing band.

He regularly duets with friends and fellow musicians Rufus and Martha Wainwright as well as appearing on Jools Hollands Later.

A truly talented singer-songwriter with an incredible voice, don't miss Teddy Thompson at The Electric Palace on Thursday, February 24th, it's going to be sensational.

Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Info Centre for £14.50

Super Furry Animal for Electric Palace debut

THE ever-eccentric Gruff Rhys, frontman of Super Furry Animals, is back to tour the UK with his third studio album, and his most ambitious yet. 'Hotel Shampoo' (released February 14th) is, like its name, drawn up by inspiration from the mini bottles of shampoo collected during 15 years of frequent hotel visits and the people met over the last 15 years of performing.

Adding to an expansive range of creative work, which has seen two previous solo albums, the Welsh-sung 'Yr Atal Genhedlaeth' and 2007's 'Candylion', the Mercury nominated project - Neon Neon, a number of high profile collaborations with the likes of Gorillaz and Dark Night of the Soul, the Danger Mouse & Sparklehorse LP and finally, an experimental LP with a Brazillian TV repairman' Tony Da Gatorra, titled 'The Terror of Cosmic Loneliness' which goes hand in hand with Gruff's film-making debut 'Seperado'

Gruff Rhys is at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, February 25th 2011. Tickets cost £13.50, and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901, or visit electricpalace.org.uk.

Parcel of land just outside the village of Hawkchurch

WHAT a strange couple of months we have had in the property market! Prior to Christmas, estate agents were wondering what had happened to all the buyers as it was so quiet. However, 2011 has come in like a lion with most of us seeing a great deal more activity than we usually do at this time of year. In speaking to other agents across the country and having received a message today from the National Association of Estate Agents (NAEA), it seems that there has been an unexpected surge - which is a relief for us all! We all wonder how long it will last of course and why it is happening. You can speculate on all sorts of reasons but primarily, we should be thankful.

One of the properties generating the most interest for Gordon & Rumsby at the moment is a parcel of land just outside the East Devon village of Hawkchurch.

The land, amounting to around 4 acres, is situated within a delightful rural location along a small no-through lane in a fairly sheltered spot. It comprises sections of paddock bordered by hedging and trees and several buildings, now disused and some dilapidated. There is road access and 4 entrances from the lane. The land enjoys a sheltered peaceful position but has not been used for some time (possibly up to 15 years). We understand that spring water feeds a drinking trough and a telegraph pole sits in the corner of the ground, which could provide electricity if required. Of the existing buildings, one of the larger timber buildings has collapsed and the other (a former chicken house) is still standing. There is another collapsed building and one (mainly block built) still standing along with a greenhouse.

The guide price is £50,000 and we are requesting that offers be submitted by 26th this month by phone. In view of the demand, we are looking for additional parcels of land to sell in good locations, ideally with some building up to about 5-6 acres.

Please call Gordon & Rumsby for enquiries on 01460 30888.

Continued growth in used car finance in November

Dealers provided finance for more than 50,000 used cars in November 2010, as the car market continues to return to more 'normal' buying behaviour. This is the message from the Finance & Leasing Association, which published its latest motor finance data today.

The rise in used car finance comes in the same month as an 11 percent fall in the number of new cars being bought by individuals on finance provided through dealerships compared with November 2009. But falling new car sales meant that the proportion of new cars bought using dealer finance over the last 12 months rose to 51.5%.

Commenting on November's motor finance figures, Paul Harrison, Head of Motor Finance, said:

"What our latest figures show is that the car market, following the previous Government's scrappage scheme, is returning to business as usual. Savvy consumers are seeking used cars from dealerships to get value for money.

"And while the new car market has seen a fall in the last quarter, finance sold in showrooms now accounts for more than half of private new car sales. We expect this proportion to continue to rise as the last few months of scrappage-influenced sales drop out of our 12 month average."

Drugalyser specification announced to catch drug drivers – Brake reaction

THE Home Office has produced the specification for a new police station-based drug screening device to test drivers suspected of drug driving.

The device will enable screening of suspects at police stations, removing the need to call out a doctor. If the screening is positive, a blood sample will be taken straight away for evidential testing. This should reduce the waiting time before evidential samples are taken, helping to ensure that any drug levels are recorded before they dissipate.

Ellen Booth, Brake's campaigns officer, said: "This is definitely a step in the right direction, but we're not there yet. Provisions to tackle drug driving have been woefully inadequate for too long – other countries are leaps and bounds ahead of us. There still isn't a law making it an offence to drive on illegal drugs. Without this legislation, the police have to try to prove driver impairment, which is difficult and helps to explain why there are so few convictions. We need a roadside drugs screening device, and high levels of random testing, so that drivers know there is a significant chance of being caught. I sincerely hope this signals the coalition's intention to act swiftly on drug driving and implement further changes that are desperately needed to stamp out this deadly menace on our roads."

PERRY STREET LEAGUE WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

NEWMAN SEALS SEMI SPOT

Charmouth finally break losing habit

COUNTY CUP GOAL: Sam Crocker scored the pick of the goals as Beaminster booked Intermediate semi' place

DECIDER: Dan Rumsby's goal earned Charmouth their first win of the season.

TRIPLE: Jack Durrant scored a first ever hat-trick as Lyme Regis Bantams hammered Farway Reserves.

DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP
Quarter-Final replay
Beaminster 3 Ferndown Sports 2

A LATE winner from Dean Newman crowned a Man-of-the-Match performance and earned Beaminster a place in the semi-finals of the Dorset Intermediate Cup.

In truth the final score line flattered visitors' Ferndown Sports as the Rainbows shook off the seasonal cobwebs in some style.

Beaminster, missing injured skipper Ben Ward, saw early chances strike the woodwork and hooked off the line and were made to pay as Ferndown scored first against the run of play.

But parity was soon restored when centre-back Andy David headed home from a corner. The hosts, looking to add to their 1993-94 success in this competition, deservedly edged ahead before the interval when Sam Crocker rounded off a superb junking run by slotting home.

Top-scorer Newman then put daylight between the sides with his seventh goal in five games and the result looked assured.

But ten minutes from time an injury to Richie Runyard forced a reshuffle and the hosts were caught napping as Ferndown struck a second to force a tense last few minutes.

Beaminster manager Sean Annetts was pleased with his team's performance, he said: "It wasn't as close as the score line suggests. We did miss Ben (Ward), but I dropped Dean (Newman) back into the midfield and he was awesome. Considering the long lay-off I though we played well."

The Rainbows join Lyme Regis in tomorrows draw along with Normalair RSL from the Yeovil & District league Premier Division and Bournemouth League Division One outfit Ferndown Town Greenfields.

JOHN FOWLER CUP Semi-Final
Drimpton 2 Misterton Reserves 0
(Drimpton disqualified)

DESPITE beating Winsham Reserves 2-0 Drimpton were robbed of their first cup final appearance for seven seasons when manager Lee Drayton realised he had fielded an ineligible player who had played insufficient league games prior to appearing in the semi-final.

As a consequence PSL officials will enforce the same law that saw Lyme Regis Reserves disqualified from a Division One cup final appearance earlier this month.

Sam Caddy and top-scorer Adam Chant scored the goals which ultimately count for nothing, whilst Drayton was impressed by Winsh keeper Martin Allen who kept the score down with some fine saves.

PREMIER
Barrington 1 Perry Street 1

THE points were shared at Shelway Lane. The first half ended goal less before Jamie Roberts put the visitors ahead only for Tom Perry to net a leveler with his seventh goal of the season midway through the period.

Combe Res 1 Misterton 2

MISTERTON earned three valuable points despite playing with 10 men for 75 minutes after referee Bryan Perryman showed Missy player-manager Jak Flatt a straight red card for stamping on an opponent.

The visitors reacted well and took the lead soon after through midfielder Paul Richards.

Tom Vincent equalised on the stroke of half-time but Richards struck again in the 70th minute to lift Misterton up a place to seventh in the table.

Ilminster Res 1 W & M Chinnock 4

ILMINSTER Town Reserves' promising start to the season was shattered by West & Middle Chinnock who recorded their first ever win in their debut season in the Premier Division.

All seemed to be going to plan as the Blues led through a disputed Charlie Rutter goal at the break - with The Chinnocks' thinking Rutter may have been offside.

It mattered not, as Ollie Hutchings leveled and skipper Damian Hart headed the visitors in front before Aaron Langdon stretched the lead to 3-1 on the hour.

Man-of-the-Match Russell Lock rounded things off in the 83rd minute.

Merriott Rovers 2 Lyme Regis 3

WITH the Davey Fort waterlogged this game was switched to Merriott. But the game was in doubt on Friday when Rovers officials discovered that one of their goal frames had been stolen!

A replacement was sourced and the game went ahead. The Seasiders started well but were made to pay for squandering a handful of good chances when Scott Jennings fired Rovers ahead on 20 minutes.

Lyme were all-square ten minutes before the interval when Steve Batey headed home Joel Gostling's header at the near post for his sixth goal of the season.

Leading marksman Julien Simier took his tally to 13 when he fired through a crowded area to put the Seasiders ahead on the hour.

But Merriott fought back to level ten minutes later when Pete Symes capitalized on some confusion amongst the visitors' ranks to pounce on a throw-out by Ashley Caddy.

Lyme were however enjoying plenty of possession and the pressure eventually told when Gostling got on the end of a long cross from Matt Laing to head home at the far post.

After some below par performances, Lyme manager Robin Townsend felt his side, , showed signs of improvement, he said: "We've been winning without playing anything like we did last season – it was much better today. I thought Steve Batey just edged out Adam Caddy, Joel Gostling and Joe Bond as MoM."

DIVISION ONE
Charmouth 3 Norton Athletic 2

AFTER a run of 21 winless games the Charmouth faithful finally saw their team record a win a Barrs Lane as Norton Athletic were beaten 3-2.

Dan Rendall crossed for Dan Rumsby to head home the opener. The Norts leveled before the break but another header, this time from Ali Harvey restored the hosts' lead.

Rendall then smashed home a 25-yarder before the visitors netted a late consolation. Top Robins were Rendall, Simon Smyth and 16-year-old right back Paul Grinter.

The result edges Norton, who themselves are now without a win in six, towards the drop zone.

Millwey Rise 3 Crewkerne Town 1
(abandoned 63 minutes)

A FRACTURED skull suffered by Millwey 'keeper Steve O'Brien forced the abandonment of this promotion battle at First Avenue with Millwey leading 3-1 through goals from Marc Jenkins, Keith Forsey and Matt Hall .

The Millwey gloveman received his injury in a routine challenge with a Crewkerne defender. With just 63 minutes played the league will probably decide to replay the match which was held up whilst the Devon Air Ambulance was in attendance.

O'Brien was taken to Exeter and then onto Plymouth hospital. "He's got a triple fracture, but thankfully there in no damage to his brain" said Rise player-manager Shane Featherstone.

The whole of the league will no doubt wish Steve a full and speedy recovery.

Netherbury 1 Winsham United 0

A FIRST minute goal, via a post, from John Kingston was enough to move Netherbury up into the Division One promotion places.

The woodwork was to play quite a part in this stormy encounter with Tim Hussey being denied by the upright.

The Division's top scorer also failed with two one-on-one opportunities to add to his 18 goals so far this season.

Ambers boss Andy Loudon picked out 'keeper Matt Sherring as his star performer.

DIVISION TWO
South Petherton Res 3 Uplyme 0

"WE looked really rusty and that pitch is certainly not the one you would pick to play on after a Christmas break" was Uplyme manager Rob Coombe's assessment of his side's lack lustre showing against a Petherton side superbly marshaled by pick-of-the-league manager Karl Diment.

Pethy were 2-0 up inside 15 minutes and added a third though a late own goal. Earlier both teams observed a minute's silence in memory of lifelong Uplyme supporter Ron Matthews, grandfather of current player Greg.

◆ PYMORE player-manager Matt Tither will take on the challenge of the Virgin London Marathon on Sunday, 17th April.

Matt will be running in aid of St Margaret's Hospice - a charity committed to providing specialist care and support for patients and families with a terminal or life-limiting illness.

The charity is very special to both Matt and his family "About six years ago my Grandfather was diagnosed with cancer and spent the final weeks of his life being cared for by the kind and friendly staff at the hospice in Taunton. I would like to give something back to the Hospice" he said.If you would like to support Matt in his fundraising sponsorship forms are available by texting Matt on 07967093563 or you can sponsor him on line by debit/credit card at www.justgiving.com/Matt-Tither

DIVISION THREE
Lyme Bantams 7 Farway Utd Res 2

A HAT-TRICK from 16-year-old Jack Durrant was the highlight as Lyme Regis Bantams returned to form with a 7-2 hammering of visiting Farway United Reserves.

It was all over at half-time with the Seasiders 5-1 to the good. Durrant opened the scoring but Farway captain Bob Down soon leveled.

Two goals in a minute from Ryan Fifer then swung the game the way of the hosts and there was no way back for the Devonians.

Midfielder Derek Walkey made it 4-1 on the half-hour with a typically composed finish. Reserve team manager Gerard Hitchcock then completed the first-half-goal glut in the 32nd minute.

A neat pass from Rob Larcombe set Durrant up for his second soon after the restart and the youngster completed his triple with a fine header from a pinpoint cross from Ashley Walkey.

Farway scored a late consolation when veteran Graham Barton nodded home his 199th PSL goal against one of his former club's after Lyme keeper Will Meech had tipped long range scorcher onto his crossbar.

Hitchcock was impressed by the contributions of Durrant and right-back Rhys Paterson.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Exmouth U16 4 Uplyme 3

AFTER A period of Uplyme pressure, two goals around the half-hour mark just before the half hour mark put hosts' Exmouth in control.

Uplyme immediately responded with their own double from Harry Thresher and Johnny Turner. to leave the sides all square at the interval.

The start of the second half saw much of the play in the Uplyme half and defenders George Heath and Jamie Wellman worked hard with keeper James Dunford to thwart the Exmouth attack. Some ill-discipline by Exmouth gave Uplyme chances from several free kicks and a penalty, slotted in by Sam Jones. Ten minutes a penalty at the other end gaveExmouth their equaliser.

Play was then fairly even until in the final minutes when the hosts broke away to bag the winner.

Uplyme's Man-of-the-Match was Matt Pile.

Golfers celebrate

WHILE the extreme wintry conditions outside were picturesque albeit prohibitive for golf, members of the Lyme Golf Club assembled to recall and celebrate triumphs and success over the previous 12 months.

On display was an impressive array of trophies ready to be awarded by the captains of their respective sections of the club.

Amongst the winners and runners-up were some familiar names but it was also pleasing to see some new names appearing on the list of winners.

It was also good to see some of the younger members of the club emulating their parents in achieving success in the Junior division competitions.

Seniors

THE Monday following the successful completion of the medal event saw a significant change in the weather and course conditions.

Following overnight rain, buggies were not allowed on the course and the field was consequently much reduced. However, some of the the 47 stalwarts who did venture out for the Stableford competition recorded some highly respectable scores in the conditions.

In division one Ted Baker (15) not only scored a highly commendable 37points but recorded the only "two" of the day. In second place was the ever consistent Brian Ridley (18) with 34 points with Mike Betteridge(18) achieving third on countback with 33 points. Division two was won by Peter Williams (23) with 31 points.

LATE GOAL FOILS MAGPIES

DORCHESTER TOWN 3
EASTBOURNE BOROUGH 3
FA Trophy Round Two - Att: 402

DORCHESTER Town came within a minute of providing a deserved upset in this FA Trophy 2nd Round match when full-back Neil Jenkins grabbed an equaliser for Eastbourne Borough with an ambitious and well executed overhead kick.

The Magpies had twice fought back from a goal down to lead their Blue Square Premier opponents with a goal from skipper Mark Jermyn with just 13 minutes left on the clock, before Jenkins at the far post with his back to goal bicycle kicked Neil Crabb's attempted header from a corner into the net from six yards.

With Dorchester seeking for their first success of the New Year and Eastbourne having lost six of their last seven matches, both sides were looking for victory to kick start the rest of the season.

AFC Bournemouth loanee Jayden Stockley made his home debut for the county town side which saw flu victim Jermyn and Kyle Critchell, having recovered from his knee injury, replace James Coutts and Jake Smeeton in the starting line-up

With a strong wind blowing down the pitch and an uneven sandy surface, both sides struggled to play any constructive football, and with a nit-picking referee who stopped the game at every opportunity, the first-half by and large was scrappy.

Dorchester playing with the wind behind them had most of the early play, with Stockley showing that he was not afraid to get stuck in and winning some good ball in the air.

However it was 17 minutes before either keeper had anything to do; visiting gloveman Rikki Banks having to be watchful as a 20-yard looping header from Steve Devlin assisted by the wind, bounced just in front of him and he had to catch the ball above his head.

It was a surprise therefore that Eastbourne took the lead on 24 minutes. Former Brighton man Steve Brinkhurst, who had an excellent game throughout, outpaced Neil Martin in a 20-yard run down the right before delivering a superb cross which drifted away from Magpies keeper Regan Coward on the wind, for Richard Pacquette to thunder home a powerful header from six yards.

Dorchester responded almost immediately when Ryan Moss, who once again led the line with courage and energy, headed the ball into Devlin's path, but his 20-yard shot went past the left hand upright.

On 34 minutes Stockley's thumping header flew wide after Ben Austin had headed Devlin's cross behind for a corner.

Dorchester finally got the reward for their first half taming of their higher leagued opponents, by equalising in the second minute of added time.

Martin had put Moss in behind the visitor's defence, but it looked as if he had missed his chance as he dragged his shot across Banks but beyond the far post, but Nick Crittenden showed great awareness sliding in to turn the ball home from an acute angle.

Crittenden was alert again 20 seconds into the second-half, but couldn't keep his attempted lob from the edge of the box down after Banks had dropped the ball.

Dorchester were playing better into the wind, and Stockley and Moss combined to carve through the Eastbourne defence, but the loanee's final pass was just a touch too far.

On the hour Stockley won the ball with a crunching tackle but was then stopped in his run by Austin.

The resulting free-kick saw Devlin's shot hit the wall and rebound to Crittenden whose shot just cleared the angle of the goal frame.

Almost immediately Pacquette restored Eastbourne's lead against the run of play with a combination of neat footwork and poor defending.

A stretching Gary Bowles managed to cut out a pass across the box, but the ball fell to Crabb who fed Pacquette. Somehow the former QPR striker nicked the ball over Walker and neatly lobbed Critchell before stop volleying the ball over Coward.

This led to Eastbourne' most dominant period with Coward forced to push Ethan Strevett's low shot around the post and then claw away a header that caught on the wind, forcing him to dive full length.

Dorchester equalised on 70 minutes when Crittenden once again appeared at the far post to turn home Moss' deflected shot that looped over Banks, and once again the Magpies took control with Moss and Stockley causing panic in the visiting defence.

The latter set up the former who cut inside but his driven cross was cut out, before Stockley in his last action before being replaced by Rico Wilson, burst between two defenders to head Martin's cross straight at Banks.

A minute later they took the lead. A quickly taken Martin throw-in found Jermyn on the byeline who cleverly hooked the ball goalwards, and the ball dropped over Banks head and just inside the far post.

Action was end to end as time ran down and it looked like Dorchester had claimed a major scalp, and passage into the last sixteen until Jenkins late strike.

Both sides must do it all over again at Priory Lane on Tuesday night for the right to host Blue Square North outfit Guiseley in the quarter-finals

Terras hit by Rowe brace

WEYMOUTH 1 LEAMINGTON 2
Zamaretto Premier - Attendance: 508

A FIRST half brace from James Rowe was enough to condemn Weymouth to their fourth successive defeat, whilst new manager Martyn Rogers, appointed after the match, sat in the stands.

Rogers, who occupied the hot-seat at Tiverton Town for over 1000 games spread over 20 seasons, saw an improved second-half performance resulting in Mark Oldring pulling back a goal four minutes from time, but not enough to earn them any points.

A frantic opening saw promotion hopefuls Leamington take a fourth minute lead when Luke Corbett nodded the ball down for Rowe to side foot home from close in.

Corbett then headed a second seven minutes later but was ruled offside, before Tom Manley had to be alert to push Oldring's header over the bar as he defended Alex Taylor's cross.

However Rowe doubled the Brakes advantage when he coolly lifted his keeper Tony Breeden's huge clearance over Manley a minute before the break.

The visitor's dominance continued after the interval as both Corbett and Rowe going close, before Weymouth finally got a foot hold in the game. A Sam Clarke effort just cleared the bar and Breeden was forced to make a smart save.

Oldring gave the Terras hope four minutes from time when he headed home from Jamie Beasley's corner, but they could not pierce the solid Brakes defence again.

Whilst the Terras remain nine points from safety, they need to start picking up points as others around them begin to consolidate their positions and will soon leave them isolated.

Bees set for table-top clash

BRIDPORT 4 PORTISHEAD TOWN 1
Toolstation Division One - Att: 112

BRIDPORT eased past bottom side Portishead Town with a comfortable victory that sets them up well for next Saturday's top of the table clash with Merthyr Town.

A second-half brace from Ryan Dovell, to take his season's tally to 13 in just 17 games, added to strikes from Russell Legg and Dan Wise to ensure the Bees kept on the shirt tails of the Welsh side.

With Sam Filkins situation yet to be resolved, manager Trevor Senior recalled Lee Cleal in goal for only his second game of the season, and he didn't put a foot wrong.

Bridport took the lead after just five minutes through Russell Legg who volleyed home from the edge of the box after Dovell had kept Wise's corner alive by nodding it back to the midfielder.

Soon after Chris Clarke had a chance with a left foot shot which the Possets keeper Seb Gribble saved, and although Bridport were in complete control, they didn't extend their lead until the 37th minute.

Gribble failed to hold Jamie Symes' shot and then felled down Legg as he contested the ball. Wise made no mistake from the spot, sending the keeper the wrong way.

Dovell grabbed his first on 56 minutes when he picked up a loose ball to score from close in, after Chris Senior having made a run into the box, cleverly backheeled the ball towards goal and it ricocheted off a defender.

Three up, Senior, with next week in mind made some changes, bring on Dan Peart and Tristan Gale for Legg and Darren Lock.

Wise smashed a 30-yard thunderbolt against the bar before Portishead pulled one back when Nick Steadman took advantage of misunderstanding in the Bees defence by reacting first when the ball came back off the post.

However there was no stopping Bridport and Dovell completed their fourth consecutive Toolstation Western League Division One victory when he converted from close in after Gale had stepped over Shane Evans, excellent cross into the six-yard box.

Evans then had a shot blocked on the line by a combination of Gribble and a defender.

Senior said: "It was a fairly comfortable win, and although they came into it a bit in the second half, we were never under any real pressure.

Lee Cleal played well and it was good that he had a chance of 90 minutes in case he is required next week. I also thought Russell Legg had an excellent game.

"At the start of the month I said I wanted three wins before we played Merthyr Town and the lads have delivered on that. "They are loving it at the moment and there's a great atmosphere around the place.

We are getting some good crowds too and hopefully there'll be a bumper one next Saturday."

Senior added: "The groundsman has done a great job to get these last two games on, and we have played some good stuff on the pitch."

Bees breeze past Granby

GRANBY ROVERS 0 BRIDPORT 3RDS 3

BRIDPORT Thirds put themselves back into the promotion race with a comfortable victory over top of the table Granby.

Having slipped after a great start to the season and then deducted three points, Bridport needed to beat the Weymouth side to give themselves a chance in Dorset League Division Two.

With no reserve match they welcomed back Gino Scovell and Richard Pincombe who had recently been promoted, whilst Granby felt the loss of Mark Shallcross and Lee Pattison through suspension.

Manager Jason Forbes had to tinker with the back four with three of the regulars on holiday, and the first quarter of the match was scrappy, not helped by a strong wind that blew down the pitch.

Playing with the gale in the first half, Bridport made the breakthrough midway through when Chris Symes scored a good goal.

Despite no further scoring until the last five minutes of the match, Bridport always looked comfortable, and indeed played better into the wind after the break.

They secured victory when Symes was brought down in the box and Jamie Fry scored from the penalty spot before Ali Boyer completed the scoring with a header a minute from time.

Forbes was pleased with the victory and said: "It was a good result and a good performance.

We defended really well and looked a solid unit, and didn't look like we were going to be beaten.

"The first goal settled us and we started to play as we had at the beginning of the season, and with last week's result hope that it will be the beginning of a decent run of form.

"We are playing with a bit of confidence and have had two clean sheets, and it gets us back in the mix."

Rogers takes the reins

FORMER Tiverton Town manager Martyn Rogers has been named as Weymouth's new boss after the sacking of Ian Hutchinson last week.

Rogers (55), who played for the Terras in the mid-eighties signed a contract until the end of next season after watching his new club lose 2-1 to Leamington on Saturday at the Bob Lucas Stadium.

A former Exeter City and Bath City player, he joined Weymouth in 1984 where he made 132 appearances before signing for Tiverton Town in 1987.

He was appointed player-manager in 1992 but retired from playing the following season.

Rogers went on to manage Tivvy in 1000 games before resigning from the post in May last year, leading them to a number of successes including two FA Vase triumphs in 1999 and 2000 and promotion to the Southern League Premier Division in 2001.

It is also understood that reserve-team manager Brendon King has been offered the assistant manager's role and is currently considering the position.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Seaview Lad to be retired

BOB Buckler was philosophical about Seaview Lad after he was pulled up at Plumpton on Monday after leading the starsportsbet.co.uk Handicap Chase over 3 ¼ miles.

"He's a lovely horse, but God didn't make him to be a racehorse!"

The eight-year-old who only started racing last May has been disappointing in his five races to date having pulled up in his two chases and been last in two of his three hurdle races.

"He will be retired from racing and find another job. It's a shame as he is a lovely lad but not a racehorse."

Sulpius is another horse with limited racing experience. Since his debut in a bumper in November, he has had three races over hurdles in fairly high class races. He finished midfield in the first two but was pulled up in the William Hill Novices' Hurdle at Kempton on Saturday.

It was a disappointing run, and he gave the impression there was something slightly wrong so we will have him checked out."

An honest Buckler added: "He is a fairly young horse, so maybe I ran him too quickly and need to give him more time to recover between races."

Ethiopia found the ground far too heavy for him at Hereford in the Lindley Catering Handicap Chase last Thursday, and although he kept racing to the end finished sixth.

"The ground was OK in the morning and so we decided to run him, but it became very heavy and he got bogged down."

Buckler will hope for a change in fortune and the conditions this week, although the weather forecast of fine and cold conditions may dry the course out too much for The Sawyer at Ascot on Saturday, and so he is doubtful.

River Indus is expected to go at Taunton tomorrow together with a new member of the stable Ashbourne Folly, a five-year-old gelding just arrived from Ireland who will be making his debut.

"He's a big horse, a chaser in the making, and he will get some experience in the bumper," said Buckler.

Double Dizzy is listed to go at Wincanton on Saturday and Crank Hill at Towcester the following day.

County FA is125 not out

THE Dorset County Football Association celebrates its 125th Anniversary on 13 April 2012

To commemorate the anniversary the company's Board of Directors have sanctioned the production of a Commemorative Book for the occasion to be published in the early months of 2012.

Twenty-five years ago the association produced a book to celebrate the 'First One Hundred Seasons'.

Local Football Historian Norman Gannaway, who compiled the book, has kindly offered to re-write the first 100 years for the new edition, whilst Peter Hough and Colin Chainey are to compile the most recent 25 years.

In order that the book provides an enjoyable read, covering all aspects of Dorset Football we are appealing to all clubs, match officials, players, administrators and supporters - both past and present - to forward any articles or photographs that they feel may be worthy of inclusion in such a book.

In particular the DFA would like to receive articles concerning outstanding feats and achievements of teams or participants in Dorset Football.

Where possible, please send copies of news cuttings or photographs rather than originals that you may wish to be returned. The more material received, the better for the content of the book.

Please forward any articles to be considered for inclusion in the book, to Colin Chainey, @ Dorset County FA, Blandford Close, Hamworthy, Poole, BH15 4BF or via email: colin.chainey@dorset fa.com as soon as possible and by no later than the end of June 2011.

Should you wish to discuss anything concerning the production of the book or offer the names and contact details of anyone you know who may be able to offer additional information, please contact 01202 688275.

SAILING

Academy sets World Record

THE Weymouth & Porland Sailing Academy has received confirmation that it has officially set the Guinness World Record™ for the 'Largest Parade of Boats'.

The attempt took place on Sunday, July 25 2010 on the Weymouth and Portland waters and featured over 300 young Optimist sailors.

The requirements to set the new world record were extensive; requiring 300 plus people, all holding a full licence for their boat, to sail a minimum distance of two miles without any significant gaps in the flow of boats.

The attempt was completed with a total of 318 Optimist sailors.

The record attempt required a huge amount of skill from the young sailors, all aged between seven and 15, who had to navigate the two mile course whilst keeping a distance of less than two-boat lengths from the other boats.

The success of the attempt can be attributed to the talent of the sailors who were welcomed from across Europe, Asia, United Arab Emirates and even Oceania.

Many of them will have aspirations of Olympic sailing one day like many of their predecessors from the Optimist class.

John Tweed, Chief Executive at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy, commented: 'We are extremely proud of what we accomplished back in July, now officially being a world record holder, I want to extend a big thanks to everyone that made it possible.

All participants had a great time and we will be able to look back and remember the day we broke a Guinness World Record™'.

Gorge start New Year in fine style

AFTER a disastrous end to the old year, when Shipton Gorge A with a player short went down 28-6 to new Weymouth & District Table Tennis League table toppers Colliton A they were given an immediate chance to put the record straight against the same opposition in the return fixture at Shipton.

This time they fared much better with Richard Trim in majestic form taking his games 3-1, 3-0 and 3-0. Chris Glover had two 3-1 victories before having to concede his third 0-3 and Gil Roberts picked up five points with two 1-3 defeats and a 3-0 win.

After a flying start in the doubles, Trim and Roberts let a 2-0 lead slip to a 2-3 defeat and the final match score was a creditable 22-15 win.

There was no stopping the B team either who travelled to Dorset Youth Association with their strongest team an chalked up an emphatic 29-8 victory to put themselves clear at the top of the table.

Jim Saunders, Bruce Beal and Ron Tucknott all recorded maximum nine point tallies but Dorset Youth salvaged some pride with a 3-2 victory against Beal and Saunders in the doubles.

The C team did their colleagues a favour by securing a 22-14 win at home against a strong Preston A side.

Peter Billingham and Eddy Buck both had nine point maximums although Billingham had to fight hard to keep his 100 per cent record after going behind 0-2 before recovering to win 3-2 against Paul Beeston.

Despite a number of close games Gary Edwardes struggled with lack of match practice, and had to settle for a point.

Buck and Billingham took the doubles 3-1 to round off a good win.

BRITISH RECORD CATCH

■ RARE HAUL: The Connemara Sucker that set a British record for West Bay angler Jonathon Trevett (inset)

WEST BAY Sea Angling member Jonathon Trevett has set a British record for a Mini Species for the10g Connemara Sucker that he caught from Weymouth pier on July 12th 2009. The record was finally ratified last month.

Jonathon of course was delighted to have broken the British record but originally did not realise the implications, only thinking he may have broken the club record.

His success followed a relatively unsuccessful overnight's fishing in the rain for eels on Weymouth pier.

The following morning having caught up with some sleep in his car, he received a call from friends Frances and Johnny Kitchen to fish with them for an hour prior to the seafood festival.

With only rag worm he opted to target the smaller fish; wrasse, pollock and blennies; down the edge of the pier, and with his final cast shortly after the Kitchens left hooked the clingfish. Unsure exactly which species and thinking it may be a WBSA club record he borrowed a crabber's bucket and took it to the Weymouth Angling Centre who suspected it could be a British record. They photographed and recorded the details and it has now been finally ratified.

The fish meanwhile is on display in the Weymouth Sea Life Centre.

Jonathon said|:"For such a small but very pretty fish, this absolutely made my weekend!"

Meanwhile the club held their first match of the New Year at Abbotsbury on January 1st where 12 members braved the freezing weather. Despite many trying out their new Christmas presents, the fish decided to stay away with only two catching fish, and relatively small ones at that!

Both were dabs, with Adam Cullingford claiming first place with his 190g effort, whilst Hugh Rathbone's weighed 150g.

Beaminster Ladies miss their chance

BEAMINSTER Ladies had a great chance to climb to safety last weekend when they played a double header against sides around them in the lower half of Channel Division 1.

With only eight sides in the league, it is imperative to take the opportunity to beat those nearest you to maintain your status. Beaminster, lying sixth, had an excellent chance to put daylight between the other lower sides when they travelled to bottom side Bournemouth 4 on Saturday, and then hosted Yeovil & Sherborne 3 who lay immediately above them in fifth.

Unfortunately they didn't take advantage of their superior play, letting a two goal lead slip at Chapel Gate to earn just a point, and then going down by a single goal on Sunday.

Two wins would have put them within touching distance of fourth place and four points clear of the bottom three.

Now they have a fight on their hands to maintain their League 1 status.

Bournemouth 4th 2 Beaminster 2

BEAMINSTER began this match in determined mood and took an early lead from a short corner routine, Freyia Crawford finishing at the near post. They doubled their advantage when Crawford fed Emma Davies to score another good goal.

Bournemouth finally found their form and after several attempts at breaking down the Beaminster defence, reduced the deficit just before half time.

Beaminster continued to take the game to Bournemouth after the break, with player of the match Julia May working tirelessly in centre midfield, but the hosts drew level through a lucky breakaway to secure a point.

Despite a concerted effort Beaminster could not break down the home defence with the aid of some dubious umpiring decisions.

◆ Team: Andrews, White, Brown, Craddock, Hughes, Drewery, Donovan, May, Timbrell, Crawford, Davies

Beaminster 0 Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd 1

BOTH sides were playing their second game within 24 hours, Yeovil having been beaten 5-2 at Gillingham.

Beaminster dominated the first half, and were unlucky not to have taken the lead on several occasions but for a superb display by the Yeovil keeper. Emma Davies found her too good when Beaminster forced two short corners in succession on eight minutes, before Harriet Hughes went close two minutes later.

She then repelled another three superb short corner routines midway through the half; the second one involving three sprawling saves as Beaminster forwards pounded her goal.

Despite their positive approach, their efforts failed to produce a goal, and then on 22 minutes Yeovil scored with their first and almost only direct shot; Debbie Green scrambling the ball home from close range following some scrappy play in the D.

Beaminster continued to dominate particularly in midfield with Andrea Thomas working hard and they came close again on the stroke of halftime when Sarah Davies just failed to get on to the end of a cross from Danni Donovan.

Yeovil showed more in the second half with May and Donovan dominating the midfield exchanges, but with both sides feeling the effects of a long weekend neither side could produce enough clear cut opportunities up front, although Green was always a threat for the visitors with her speed.

Beaminster will feel disappointed not to have taken something from this match considering the chances they created, particularly in the first half, but now face a challenge to keep out of the relegation zone.

Player-of-the-Match was shared between Donovan and Ali White, who marshalled the Beaminster defence effectively throughout the game.

■ TEAMWORK: Despite Player-of-the-Match displays from Julia May (right) and Danni Donovan Beaminster failed to take their opportunity at the weekend.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

House double sees Puddletown home

I DECIDED to travel West instead of East on Saturday last, and watched Devon & Cornwall league Leaders, Bideford, stretch away to a win over Honiton.

WEYMOUTH 11 SWANAGE & WAREHAM 2nd 6

THE home side chose to play with the not inconsiderable wind at their backs in the first period and, although they did create chances, an obdurate visitors' defence limited their first half successes to a couple of penalty goals kicked by Peplow.

I would imagine that the Swanage & Wareham camp was the more satisfied at the halfway stage, and this feeling would have been reinforced when they kicked a penalty goal of their own some fifteen minutes into the second period.

In fact the third quarter saw the visitors on top, only for Weymouth to reimpose themselves around the hour mark when they scored a try out wide after they had gone through several phases, protecting their own possession and recycling well.

Although the try remained unconverted it proved to be enough. The visitors tried to mount something of a rally, principally through their large tight five. The home side matched them in this area however with number six, Sam Morris, doing good tidying up work and, although Swanage & Wareham narrowed the gap by kicking another penalty just before the end, they could not do more and Weymouth held on for the win that was certainly deserved in view of their defensive display.

SWANAGE & WAREHAM 4th 17 WEYMOUTH 2nd 19

THE first 20 minutes of this game virtually belonged to the visitors. They scored two tries during this period, both touched down by debutant winger Luke Savage, and one converted by skipper Allen.

At this juncture however, one of the home side sustained a serious injury with the result that the game had to be moved to a different pitch. This is never a satisfactory happening in any game and Weymouth certainly lost focus subsequently, allowing their opponents to score two tries of their own and thus tying the scores at 12-12.

They managed to re-establish control later in the game however and, from a five yard scrum, scrum half Matt Mason belied his advancing years and was the first to react as his pack pushed over. Allen added the extras to this touchdown too and, although the home side came back with a try of their own, they could not convert it and, in spite of exerting pressure on the Weymouth line during the final stages, the defence coped and held out for the win.

PUDDLETOWN 13, NORTH DORSET 3rd 10

THE home side chose to face the elements initially in this Dorset & Wilts League Division Two encounter, and really could hardly have got off to a better start.

The visitors' drop out was fielded by centre Yeatman who, having found himself space, ran strongly before being checked on the North Dorset twenty two. His off-load found Marcus House however, and he outflanked the last cover to get over.

Although the try remained unconverted Puddletown continued as they had started, and certainly had the better of the first quarter. The visitors had begun to settle however and, although Udell increased the home lead with a penalty goal after 25minutes, the balance of play shifted as the North Dorset pack began to make its presence felt.

Their pressure gained reward just before the break when an unconverted try reduced the arrears and, with the scoreline standing at 8-5 at the change round, matters were far from resolved.

Puddletown began the second period as they had the first and, after five minutes' play, Musgrove initiated a move that was again completed by House who touched down for his second try of the game.

For a time more home scores looked possible but the Puddletown effort received a set back on the hour when lock Talbot had to leave the field with a neck injury which was subsequently found to be less serious than originally feared.

On the resumption the visitors again came into their own, and the home side spent the final quarter in defensive mode. They coped more than adequately however and held out until the whistle for no side, to record a welcome win after what was really a close run thing.

BRIDPORT 14 CORSHAM 43

AN inept first quarter put any thoughts aside the home side might have had of making it two wins out of two. By the time twenty minutes of this Southern League encounter had elapsed, Corsham had scored three tries and converted two of them.

The fact that sickness had blighted the Bridport side and deprived them of some half dozen first choice players was of course a mitigating circumstance, but the fact remained. They found a bit of shape later in the half and were perhaps a little unfortunate to concede a further converted try just before the break that really put the result beyond doubt, as they trailed 26-0 at the half way stage.

A further blow came just after the resumption when prop, Sullivan was sent to the bin, but they held out in his absence, and he marked his return with a try, converted by Guylor, that reduced the arrears. Corsham did reply with a touchdown of their own, unconverted this time, but Bridport were playing better now and, after a quickly taken short penalty, their man of the match, scrum-half Mick Hill, scuttled over.

Guylor again added the extras to give the scoreline some respectability, only for Corsham to cement their win with two late tries, one of which they converted.

The Bridport second side, depleted by first team calls as they were, struggled to compete with a Wheatsheaf Cabin Crew side who are making something of a mark in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South) this season, and went down 34-5.

TROWBRIDGE 25 DORCHESTER 22

ONE or two gremlins got inside the Dorchester sideís trip to Trowbridge and caused trouble. A car breakdown en route meant that several of the side did not arrive before kick off time and therefore had to start without a warm up. The home side took full advantage and scored two early tries, one of which they converted.

Having got the stiffness out of their legs, the visitors came back and a try in the corner by James Baker, making a welcome return to the fold, set the ball rolling. Then number eight Mitchell surged over by the posts for Bament to convert, and thus to tie the scores at 12-12, and they were really back in the mix.

Trowbridge are a useful outfit however and, just before the break, their full back came into the line on the wide outside and got over in the corner to give his side a five point lead at the halfway stage.

Now with the breeze in their favour, Dorchester would have felt confident but, in the event, the third quarter was a pretty inconclusive affair, with play being confined, for the most part anyway, to midfield.

It was Read, the Dorchester full-back, who broke the deadlock. He gathered in midfield, found space and sprinted over from the Trowbridge ten yard line. He scored by the posts, making things easy for his place kicker and Bament duly obliged by adding the extras to give his side a two point lead.

Alas! from the restart some indecision allowed the home hooker to get over for a simple try and, although Bament was able to level the scores at 22-22 with a subsequent penalty goal, a similar effort edged Trowbridge clear once more.

Dorchester did mount something of a rally and the bounce perhaps denied them late on, as the home side held out for the win, leaving Dorchester with a losing bonus point.

It was in fact a bit of a difficult day for the Dorchester club all round, with their second side having to concede its away fixture due to team raising difficulties. Their third side played however and came out on top of Bournemouth fourths 40-17.

PREVIEW

THERE is not much first team rugby being played locally on Saturday next. The weekend is devoted to the playing of league ìcatch upî fixtures and, as WEYMOUTH is more or less up to date with its league programme, it had no fixture at first team level.

BRIDPORT face a real tester, for their hosts, OLDFIELD OLD BOYS, have, after a rather ìhit or missî start to their league campaign, come good in recent weeks. In fact they put a dent in leaders Salisburyís one hundred per cent record last time out by holding them to a draw.

Much will depend on Bridport's sickness reports but, unless they are at full strength and at their best, they could well face a long afternoon at Bath.

PUDDLETOWN on the other hand, have a real chance to make it three wins from three when they take on POOLE at home. Their opponents lie a couple of places above them in the table and this could well be a close one.

DORCHESTER have what is, on paper anyway, the easiest task of the three when they visit FROME who lie very much in the bottom half of the table and have not scored nearly as freely as their opponents thus far. It will need an eighty minutes effort however and they will not be able to afford themselves the luxury of switching off, as they did against Marlborough.

As to the second sides, Weymouth seconds face a tough encounter when they visit Wincanton, while Bridport seconds are unlikely to come back with much joy from Frome seconds.

Both Dorchester seconds and thirds have home games, and both will probably be close ones, for they take on opponents Wheatsheaf Cabin Crew and Salisbury thirds respectively.

Rugby extras

Dorchester U16 29 Ivel Barbarians 35

THIS was a highly entertaining game which Dorchester had won until they showed they were the perfect hosts by allowing Ivel two late, and soft, tries to steal victory.

Although Ivel hadn't played a game in nearly eight weeks they started the brighter, and with a stiff breeze at their backs, immediately put Dorchester under pressure.

With the visitors showing pace and inventiveness they soon found themselves 7-0 up following a well worked converted try.

The home side hit straight back and mounted a series of attacks in the visitors' 22, and when a driving maul found the home side within sight of the try line, Hugh Vivian peeled off the back and touched down - but the conversion was missed.

From the restart Dorchester attacked again with Ivel giving away three successive penalties in their 22, resulting in a quick tap which saw Vivian over for his second try which was converted. The rest of the half was evenly contested until Dorchester conceded two late converted tries to end the half 12-21 down.

Playing up the slope, Dorchester exerted early pressure and when Smith chipped over the approaching winger, James Bickley showed great vision following it up and touching down with Smith converting.

Pressure from Ivel down their left wing saw second row Sam Pollard make a great cover tackle and prevent a certain score.

Some excellent rucking and mauling put the pressure back on Ivel, and when Lewis White hit a ruck at a great body angle clearing out two players, it left clean ball for Ali James who popped it out to the rampaging Pollard who was unstoppable from 10 yards to touch down under the posts. With the successful conversion Dorchester had a six point advantage.

Dorchester continued to press resulting in further infringements from the visitors, the final one straight in front of the posts which Smith slotted over to extend the lead to eight points.

However this in the end did not prove to be enough as Ivel, sensing that the tackling of the home side was not at its best, rallied and ran in two converted tries in the final minutes to steal victory.

BLAKE READY FOR WORLD CHAMPS

PAUL BLAKE is in good heart and form ahead of the IPC World Championships that start in Christchurch, New Zealand this weekend.

Paul, from Charlton Down, celebrated his 21st birthday at training camp in Auckland last week before moving to the south island on Monday after ten days of intensive training.

These paralympic games are the last major gathering before London 2012, and Paul who will be competing in the T36 class in three events has great prospects of medals in all three disciplines.

His mother Kate told View From: "His emails have been very upbeat. He is enjoying the hot weather and despite a 27 hour flight, he says he is feeling strong and training has gone well."

The games open on Friday, and Paul's begins his quest for medals with the final of the 1500m on Sunday (23rd) for which he is currently the fastest man in the world.

Heats for the 800m, for which Paul also currently holds the world's fastest time are on Wednesday with the final the following day (27th). The 400m, which whilst his weakest event he still has a good chance of a medal, follows on Friday and Saturday.

Kate added: "He has had some problems with his legs over the last few months but the physios and doctors have done a good job so fingers crossed that he remains fit.

"This schedule would prove heavy for an able bodied runner so you have to appreciate what this implies for someone with cerebral palsy. Nevertheless, he is determined to win medals in all three.

"Being away for his 21st birthday, we are hoping that he will be able to enjoy a double celebration when he gets back home on February1st."

More than 1,000 athletes from 70 countries will be competing in Christchurch and you can follow his progress on television.

Each day throughout the championships starting from the first day of competition (January 22nd) www.ParalympicSport.TV will be broadcasting live coverage of the evening session between 2am and 6am GMT or Channel $ will also be covering the event.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club launch anniversary celebrations

UPLYME & LYME REGIS Cricket Club is holding an evening 'get together' on Friday, January 28th in the club pavilion.

The first part of the evening will be an opportunity for players to sign-on for club for the upcoming 2011 season.

If players choose to pay their subsciption on the evening the cost will be £20. Otherwise the fee for the 2011 season will be £25 for full playing members.

Following the signing-on there will be an opportunity for a get together for ex-players and member. It is hoped that many of the playing members will stay and join in. The invitation is to an evening of cricketing memories and anecdotes. There will be a well food included in the ticket price of £5.

Club chairman Paul Messer said: "It is hoped that an evening in the pavilion will stir old memories and provide new ones.

The point to all this is that this year is our 125th anniversary. Plans are being discussed over the production of a brochure/magazine to produce a magazine reviewing highlights of the club's history over its lifetime.

However, in addition to the club history it is proposed that the pages will be enhanced by some of the more memorable anecdotes and recollections that it is hoped will come to light".

The evening starts at 7pm - for further details ring 07831 633180)

SENIOR RELISHING THE BIG TEST

BY STUART BROOM

BRIDPORT face the biggest test of the season this Saturday with the visit of current Toolstation Western League First Division leaders Merthyr Town.

The Welsh outfit currently head the table with 50 points from 21 games, and whilst the Bees are seven points adrift, they have three games in hand.

Unfortunately leading scorer Ryan Dovell will be on his belated honeymoon and will miss the game which will be a big blow, but manager Trevor Senior will be able to welcome back Darren Watts who has completed his three match ban after being sent-off in the dying moments of the home game against Hengrove Athletic.

There is also a slight concern about Jamie Symes who had a reoccurrence of a groin strain that he has been carrying for some weeks.

"He felt it in the first half but didn't say anything when he came in at half-time. However it was sore when he stood up to go out again and immediately came over and told me, and we replaced him with Matt Condliffe to be on the safe side. We shall have to wait and see," said Senior.

Whilst it appears to be widely reported that Sam Filkins has left the club to return to Dorchester Town following Simon Evans' departure to Rushden & Diamonds, Senior confirms it is not certain at the moment.

Filkins having signed dual registration forms for both clubs earlier in the season did not play for Bridport on Saturday, and was at the Magpies home FA Trophy match against Eastbourne Borough, although Andy Suttle was named as the substitute keeper due to a glitch in registering him in time.

Senior said: "I know Ashley Vickers is keen for Sam to play at Dorchester, but I believe he would be better off playing regularly with us rather than sitting on the bench.

I am still hopeful Sam might see my point, but if not then Lee Cleal will step up.

"He did very well against Portishead on Saturday and had a good game so I have no problems with him coming in.

The only negative is that Sam knows the players and system well having played all but one game this season, and that is why I played Lee on Saturday to give him the experience.

"I have kept Lee in the picture all the time so he knows my position."

Merthyr are expected to bring 40 or 50 fans on Saturday and Senior said: "It will be a big test for us and we are looking forward to the game. I just hope it's a good game with good playing conditions and we get a decent crowd.

It will be a good test for us. If we are to gain promotion we need to beat the main contenders, and they don't get bigger than Merthyr."
